

RIOTS RAGE, MANY DIE IN 2 HUN CITIES

Dusseldorf, and Madgeburg Declared by Government in State of Siege

PEASANTS ORGANIZING GREAT FOOD BLOCKADE

Civil War in Bavaria Depends on Socialists' Ability to Get Trained Soldiers.

BERLIN, April 9.—Street fighting has broken out in Dusseldorf and Madgeburg, where the government has proclaimed a state of siege. Many persons have been killed.

The deposed Bavarian socialist government has returned from Nuremberg and Bamberg, it was learned today. Under the direction of Premier Hoffman, loyal troops and peasants are being organized to establish a food blockade against Munich and other cities which have embraced communism, with the idea of starving the soviet government into submission.

Civil war in Bavaria, it was believed here, depends on the socialists' ability to gather quickly a formidable force of trained soldiers.

Indications multiplied today that the national soviet campaign, in session here, would confine its efforts to peaceful demands on the Scheide-mann government for certain reforms.

WYOMING MINERS NOT RADICALS, SAYS M'TEE

ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo., April 10.—Joe McTee, president of the miners' local No. 2293 here, and who rules the men of this mining camp like a beneficent father, said today that bolshevism does not exist in the mines of Wyoming, despite the fact that a large proportion of the men are foreigners.

"The foreigners are just like lambs," said McTee.

McTee was Federal Food Administrator for Sweetwater county during the war.

PASADENANS HOLDING SPRING FLOWER SHOW

PASADENA, April 10.—The largest spring flower show ever held in Pasadena opened today at Hotel Green. It will continue three days. Notable among the exhibits was a magnificent display from the Huntington estate. Henry Paulson, gardener for Mrs. H. I. Stuart, of the San Rafael Heights, showed a new large silver pink stock grown from seed received by Mrs. Stuart direct from Jerusalem. This is the first time the new flower has been shown in the United States.

BABY GIRL DIES OF SLEEPING SICKNESS

OXNARD, April 10.—The first case of the strange malady known as the "sleeping sickness" reported in this county is that of Eleanor Coultas, 17-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Coultas, well-known ranchers of this section. The infant passed away after an illness of three weeks, during which time she seemed to be in a sort of stupor, although seemingly suffering little or no pain.

The ailment was diagnosed the "sleeping sickness" by both a local physician and a Los Angeles specialist, from whom the child received medical attention. Up to the time of her fatal illness, the child was perfectly well.

ORPHANS' PENCIL SALE
SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—"Lest You Forget, San Francisco Nursery for Homeless Children," is today's slogan in the annual pencil sale for San Francisco orphans. On each pencil is the slogan.

Girl Tries to Dismount in Street, Halting Cars. Until Police Take Her

PORTLAND, Ore., April 10.—A street car traffic in the downtown district was halted last night when a Miss Gene Mitchell sat down on a street car track and started to dismount. By the time she had removed her shoes and stockings a large crowd had gathered. Then the cops came and arrested her.

The police say Miss Mitchell suffered from the effects of a drug or bootleg whisky.

Dazed Soldier Going Around With $33,000

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—A dazed French private is somewhere in the bay district today and the police hope he is still hugging a small iron box. In the box is $33,000.

The private was seen in the Southern Pacific waiting room and told employees he was going to buy tickets for comrades to Siberia. He willingly showed the contents of the box to them.

No attempt was made to safeguard the helpless man or his money.

ALFRED HERTZ WINNER IN SUIT ON CONTRACT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—Alfred Hertz, San Francisco Symphony orchestra director, is today victor over Mrs. Herman Lewis, New York booking agent, who sued him for $200, alleged due for securing him a position as leader of a local musical organization. Hertz denied the contract Mrs. Lewis alleged was made and the court held there was no evidence that Hertz secured his position through any effort of Mrs. Lewis.

BANDITS GET $100,000 FROM ST. LOUIS BANK

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 10.—The Baden bank of St. Louis was held up by eight bandits and looted of an amount estimated at $100,000 shortly after 10 o'clock this morning. Two hundred policemen armed with riot guns pursued the bandits in thirty police automobiles. The bandits headed west toward Kansas City.

$40,000,000 HIGHWAY ELECTION IS PLANNED

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—The $40,000,000 good roads plan will be put up to voters of the state at a special election June 24, supporters of the project assert today. Registrars throughout the state are already making tentative arrangements to submit the question to the electors on that date.

DENTIST OF BERKELEY ENDS LIFE IN OCEAN

BERKELEY, April 10.—Dr. John A. Hutton, Berkeley dentist, who disappeared leaving a note that he would end his life, died in the ocean near Bolinas. A body found there has been identified as that of the missing local man. He will be brought here today for burial.

Despondency owing to illness caused Hutton's act, friends say.

LAWYER AND PRISONER CLASH IN FIST FIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—Fisticuffs instead of legal authority figured in an attempt of Albert Rolati, a county jail prisoner, and C. V. Riccardi, his former attorney, to settle a difference regarding legal fees. The two clashed at the city hall and after they had been separated with honors even, it was agreed that Rolati should pay $1500 to the attorney for legal fees and that no warrant should be issued charging Riccardi with embezzlement.

FRENCH ASK EXHIBIT LOS ANGELES, SEIZED

LOS ANGELES, April 10.—The exhibit of French art and antiques which Jules Ratzkowski has been conducting here presumably for the benefit of the French Red Cross, is closed today as a result of an investigation by French and American government agents.

Four rugs, said to be valued at $40,000 have been seized by Collector of Customs John B. Elliott and Ratzkowski has paid $13,000 customs duties which were not paid when the exhibit was brought into the country.

The investigation is said to have shown that all of the "antiques" were not antiques, and that the French Red Cross was not back of the exhibit.

150,000 IN SIBERIAN ARMY SENT BY JAPAN

TOKIO, April 10.—Japan was asked to send 6,500 troops into Siberia but sent a force twice that number.

When General Tanaka, minister of war, admitted in the diet that Japan had maintained 150,000 men in the Siberian army up until the recent withdrawal, he opened for a steady flow of insistent queries.

The subject came up when the government asked for 3,600,000 yen for 165,000 military men who had been called out.

SIX STATES SUFFER IN TERRIFIC STORM

Scores of Lives Are Reported Lost and Towns Wiped Out by Tornado

MANY TRAINS STALLED; WIRE SERVICE BROKEN

Heavy Snow and Gales Rage Throughout Big Section
Much Stock Perishes

DESTER, Colo., April 10.—Wires are down to the east, south and southwest of Denver today, cutting off this region and the Pacific Coast from direct news communication with the east. The result of fierce snow and wind storms in Kansas, Nebraska, New Mexico and the Panhandle district of Texas.

Together with the tornado, which is said to have cost scores of lives in Northern Texas, Southern Oklahoma and a portion of Arkansas, the storm is one of the most widespread and the effects are the most disastrous in years.

Westbound trains are reported stalled or many hours late. At some points the blizzard is threatening heavy losses in cattle and sheep. With many towns still isolated the loss of life in the Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico storms ranged up to 150 and towns are said to have been wiped out.

Trains Battle Storms
Heavy snows and a gale were reported in Nebraska and Kansas before wire communication was lost. Trains battling with the wind and snow reported the storm extending farther eastward. Hasting, Nebr., the last point heard from direct, stated the blizzard had raced toward Omaha with great fury. Lincoln and Grand Island reported that early yesterday a sleet storm had changed to snowfall with increasing wind.

Western Kansas reported the worst snowstorm in years. It started Tuesday with several inches of rain, changing to sleet and then to more than six inches of snow.

This Kansas storm apparently spread south and west, striking the north Texas and Oklahoma regions with cyclonic speed and creating a blizzard along the Fort Worth and Denver railroad south of Colorado. Sheep losses in southeastern Colorado and New Mexico were particularly feared. Santa Fe reported six inches of snow and a like fall at Amarillo, in the Panhandle.

Intermittent news wire service on Wednesday was completely lost early Thursday, with no immediate prospects of direct, leased wire communication with the east.

Nearly Hundred Dead; Loss of Millions Now Reported
DALLAS, Texas, April 10.—Nearly 100 dead, several hundred injured, with property loss estimated at several millions of dollars, was the toll taken by Wednesday morning's storms in Northern Texas and Southern Oklahoma, according to information gathered early today.

The known death list totaled 97 at the last tabulation. Indications were this will be increased when crippled communication lines are restored to the small villages in Northern Texas, where the heaviest loss of life occurred.

Damage to crops probably will run into millions as the principal products raised in Texas were at the stage most easily affected by heavy wind and rain.

L. A. GRAFT INQUIRY TO ENTER NEW STAGE

LOS ANGELES, April 10.—The investigation of alleged municipal graft in Los Angeles is expected to enter a new stage today with the convening of the grand jury.

Mysterious and apparently sudden deaths by the district attorney's detectives and others connected with the probe late yesterday caused apparently well founded reports that new and important evidence had been uncovered.

At the same time the district attorney's office declared that George Henderson, negro politician prominently connected with the investigation, cannot be found. It was denied that Henderson had confessed.

Mayor Urges Santa Anans to Give Returned Heroes Rousing Reception

To the Citizens of Santa Ana:
On Saturday morning, April 12, Los Angeles will give a rousing reception to the 160th U. S. Infantry, formerly the Seventh regiment, N. G. C. You are earnestly requested to turn out in force. Everyone going should carry a bouquet of flowers, the symbol of Joy.

MAYOR A. J. VISEL.

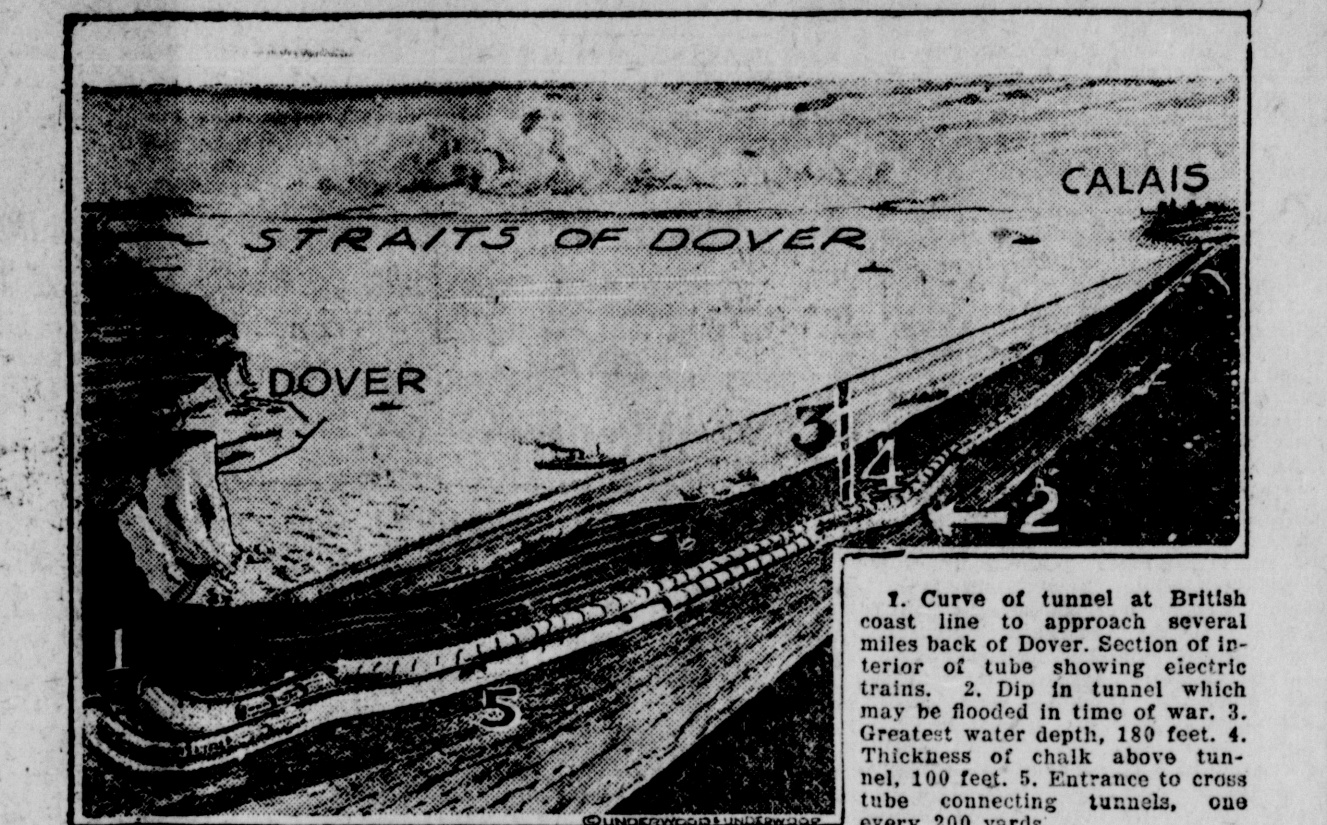

Santa Ana is going to honor her soldiers upon their return to this city following their discharge. Mrs. Nab' Holderman, wife of Capt. Holderman, one of the heroes of the First Battalion, who has been appointed by Mrs. H. M. Whittier, chairman of the women's reception committee of Los Angeles, as a member of the Committee, has been authorized by the Santa Ana soldiers and sailors reception committee to extend the Orange county boys an invitation to be guests of the local committee at dinner Thursday of next week.

A big entertainment will be held at Clune's in the evening in their honor. They will be presented to the people in a body and will be the recipients of service certificates issued by the committee.

It is not definitely known how many Orange county men are now with Company L, but the number is believed to be over twenty, the general information being that many of the men were returned to the company just before their departure for home.

Great Under Sea Tunnel Plans Ready England and France Agree on Project

Five Years Will be Required To Complete Job That Will Cost Billion

LONDON, April 10.—Plans have been perfected for the long sought undersea tunnel between France and England and construction can be started immediately after the gigantic project is authorized.

The tunnel has been a dream of many years' standing and numerous efforts have been put forth to make the plan an accomplished fact, but either England or France found some objection to each scheme hatched.

The war, it is declared, has brought the two governments closer together and they are said to be in entire accord on the huge project.

The tunnel will be 32 miles long and will cost more than a billion dollars. It is estimated that the work will require five years' time to complete it.

WILSON, LANSING URGE AGAINST JAP LAWS

SACRAMENTO, April 10.—The California senate was asked today by Secretary of State Lansing at Paris not to introduce or press at the present time the anti-Japanese legislation.

"It would be particularly unfortunate to have these bills introduced or pressed at the present time," the cablegram said.

The message came in response to a query from the California Senate to the American peace delegation asking them whether it would embarrass the American delegation if the Japanese bill or "picture bride" legislation was introduced.

Lansing's cablegram was as follows: "To the Secretary of the Senate, California: 'Your considerate telegram in relation to the proposed land legislation in the state of California, and in regard to the landing of so-called picture brides, has been received. I have been asked to express to you on behalf of the President and myself our appreciation for your informing us of the bills which will be introduced in the state Senate.'

"In view of the present situation in international affairs here in Paris, it would be particularly unfortunate to have these bills introduced or pressed at the present time.

"There are other problems which would make such action very embarrassing. I sincerely hope that you will inform the senate of the contents of this cablegram and the earnest plea on the part of the President that no legislation such as that proposed will be introduced or considered at this time.

"Expressing my thanks to you for this opportunity to consider the advisability of legislation affecting foreign questions, I am,

"Yours very truly,
"ROBERT LANSING."

The cablegram was dated April 8.

CITRUS FRUIT MARKET NEW YORK, April 10.—Twenty cars of oranges and five cars of lemons sold. Orange market, 10 to 20 cent higher; averages, $2.58 to $6.40. Highest price, Golden Cross, $6.75. Lemon market is strong on best stock, slightly lower on choice. Averages, $3.12 to $4.39. Weather clear; 8 a. m. temperature, 42.

SACRAMENTO, April 10.—That the State Railway Commission be immediately replaced at the head of the licensing system, is recommended by the legislative food investigation committee's report filed today in the senate. A thorough investigation of price manipulation is urged and a more complete program of legislation to cure the evils uncovered by the committee is suggested for the next legislature.

SACRAMENTO, April 10.—The state law preventing religious instruction in the public schools is to be changed, to prevent school trustees from prying into the private religious affairs of teachers. A bill to that effect was passed on reconsideration by the assembly.

SAN DIEGO $2,500,000 ROAD BONDS PLANNED

SAN DIEGO, April 10.—A county road bond issue of $2,500,000 for paved roads is contemplated by San Diego county today and the supervisors have appointed a commission of three to map tentative routes and make estimates on the costs.

Warren Bread Measure Is Directed at Bakers Who Faked Size of Loaf

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 10.—Standardization of the size of bread will have nothing to do with the price charged, Assemblyman Warren said today. Warren was father of the bill that will make bakers put out bread weighing one pound, one pound and a half or two pounds.

"My bill was directed at bakers who faked the size of bread by use of yeast or other ingredients," he explained. "The loaf would look like a big one, but actually would weigh under a pound. Now they must make a loaf of standard weight." The price will be determined by the bakers, based on supply and demand.

CALIFORNIA ROTARIANS GATHER AT SAN DIEGO

SAN DIEGO, April 10.—Several hundred Rotarians from San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento and Los Angeles began assembling here today to attend the annual conference of the Twenty-third District. No politics, goodwill and clean business are the characteristic principles of Rotary.

VOTE IN ASSEMBLY TODAY 25 TO 42

Dispatch Says Gun Clubs Now Safe From Legislative Interference

By a vote of 25 for to 42 against, the assembly at Sacramento today defeated Assemblyman Walter Eden's bill by which it was proposed to prevent the waste of artesian water by lowland ranchers and gun clubs of this county.

According to a Sacramento dispatch, the Orange county duck clubs are safe from legislative interference for another biennium.

This measure is the one fathered by the Orange County Farm Bureau. It proposed to declare the waste of water by allowing artesian wells to flow uncapped, excepting for some useful agricultural or industrial purpose, to be a public nuisance.

The bill was refused favorable recommendation in the conservation committee, and when taken out on the floor of the assembly failed to secure a majority vote.

BELIEVE L. A. BROKER SLAIN WITH CASH BAG

LOS ANGELES, April 10.—Although months have elapsed since Reuben E. Fogel, Los Angeles broker, whose home was at Santa Monica, was mysteriously murdered, new clues still are coming to light.

Police detectives have secured information indicating Fogel was beaten to death with a leather bag filled with silver dollars. Two men, the detectives have learned, were heard discussing this fact on the day following the murder. The men are known and this development, it is believed, may yet lead to a solution of the mystery.

CANADIAN AID SOUGHT FOR STEAMSHIP LINE

OTTAWA, Ont., April 10.—Robert Dollar of San Francisco, head of the Dollar Steamship company, is in Ottawa to arrange for a new freight service from Vancouver to New York via the Panama canal, calling at British West Indies ports. He is asking for no subsidies but apparently wants governmental blessing on the project. It is so unusual to have such a firm seek no special favors that the government will certainly give him all the encouragement possible.

There is a possibility he may be given a mail service and that he may be induced to continue his service to the Canadian-Atlantic ports.

CLUB CONVENTION IS HELD AT WATSONVILLE

WATSONVILLE, Cal., April 10.—The annual convention of the San Francisco District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, opened here this morning at 10 o'clock. The invocation was given by Mrs. Percy L. Shuman. The morning session closed with a thirty-minute address, "Facing Life Squarely," by Mrs. Annie Little Barry. A memorial service was held this afternoon in respect to the late district president, Mrs. Alice A. Fredericks. Mrs. James Wilkins addressed the session on "Americanization."

Tonight an address of welcome will be given by Mrs. E. E. Luther. Mrs. Herbert Cable, state president, will also speak.

DRIVE BY LONELY MAN GETS RESULTS

The drive started by the Lonely Man of San Pedro is bringing results. County Clerk J. M. Backs, to whom the lonely person wrote a letter asking for the names of some lonely women, has nearly a dozen names listed. These names came in letters that were written as a result of the publication of the letter by the San Pedro man.

Out of kindness of heart, Backs is withholding from publication the names of the women who have responded. He has come to the conclusion that Santa Monica must be a lonesome sort of a place, for he had three letters from that city, two of them from one street.

One of them writes that she "too, is lonely and tired of singleblessedness." The other one writes that she is "a widow by death, a good cook, light complexion and lonesome, age 50, can give best of references and should expect the same from him."

A San Bernardino woman writes that she would like to know the age of the San Pedro man, but figures he must be "on the shady side of life as young men do not have far to seek."

Here is what is declared to be the prize letter of the bunch and it is from Los Angeles:

"I see that a lonely San Pedro man is about to conduct a drive for a wife. Why can't a lonely woman ask for the same privilege? I am a widow, 40, without children or home, look young. Am so lonely for a good companion, or in other words a good pal. Am of a very cheerful nature, buoyant and elastic in spirits, full of fun and jolly. A splendid cook and housekeeper. Motherly, intense in affection with love for family that knows no bounds. I came from the East three years ago. Love California, think it is the most beautiful spot on earth. I would say it was next to heaven. But where, oh, where are the men? And how can we meet them? I mean a good man, not a perfect one. Do you think my case is a hopeless one? I thank you. Please don't make my name public. I mean don't let it get into the papers."

Wedding Presents Stolen By Thief From Orange Home

Yesterday afternoon or last night a burglar entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dyer, corner Center and Palm streets, Orange, and carried away a lot of silverware given to the young couple when they were married a few weeks ago. Most of the silverware, including knives, forks and spoons, are initialed with the letter D. A new suit of clothes belonging to Dyer was also taken. The thief entered the house while Mr. and Mrs. Dyer were visiting Dyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dyer, of West Orange.

A WOMAN'S BACK

The Advice of This Santa Ana Woman is of Certain Value

Many a woman's back has many aches and pains.

Offtimes 'tis the kidneys' fault. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills are so effective.

Many Santa Ana women know this. Read what one has to say about it: Mrs. F. L. Blain, 528 E. Washington Avenue, says: "I suffered from backache and other symptoms of disordered kidneys. At times, when I was sweeping the floor, sharp twinges of pain would catch me in the small of my back and nearly drive me wild. Mornings I awoke feeling more tired than when I went to bed. I was very nervous and even the children playing disturbed me. I bought Doan's Kidney Pills at Hatzfeld & Parsons Drug Store and they gave me wonderful relief."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Blain had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

BRITISH WOMEN WILL VIE WITH MEN TO HOLD THEIR JOBS

Equal Pay for Both Sexes is Slogan; Minimum Wage, Shorter Day Sought

BY DON E. CHAMBERLAIN

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, April 10.—British working women are out to compete with men for jobs—on a basis of equality. Equal pay for both sexes is their slogan.

And included in their program is a demand for a minimum wage and a shorter working day.

Miss Jessie Stephens, general organizer of a number of women's trade unions, representing a total membership of 70,000, said to the United Press:

"The war has changed the labor situation as regards men and women. The working woman's position in Great Britain today is a great improvement on that held by her before the war. In previous wars women have taken the place of men and have eventually been forced back to their old economic slavery. In the present war, however, women have taken the places of men in greater numbers than at any other period in the country's history. They have gone into occupations and professions which were always reserved to men and have proved themselves, in most cases, every bit as capable or even more capable than men."

Women to Compete
The time has long passed when women could be induced to acquiesce in a lower standard of wages. Women are out to compete with men for jobs on equal terms—equal pay for equal work. The women are in accord with the men for a minimum wage and shorter working day. To aid in achieving this, they are joining trade unions in large numbers. Never before in the history of trade unions in Britain have so many women been organized industrially. The National Federation of Women Workers has quadrupled its membership.

"Women will not return to pre-war conditions. They are organizing with the full intention of striking to obtain their demands, if they are not conceded by negotiations; if that fails they still have the vote to fall back upon. We have only been enfranchised a few months, but we have learned already the value of the political weapon, when used in conjunction with the strike."

"War work has done women more good than harm. They have been made to realize in a very vivid manner how necessary they are to the well being of the whole community."

1,516,000 Women at Work
The number of women actually taking men's jobs during the war was 1,516,000, of whom 531,000 are classified under the heading, Industries, 532,000 under Commerce, and 187,000 under Government establishments.

In addition to these figures, new employment was found for 1,532,000 women and girls, divided as follows: Industries, 537,000; Commerce, 334,000; Government establishments, 197,000. The most striking increases, in those spheres where women were not much employed formerly, are the gas, water and public utilities corporations, which in pre-war days employed only 600. Four thousand substitutes for male labor were found, and new jobs created for 4000 more.

The tramways formerly employed 1200 women, but they took 17,000 "substitutes," and found new employment for another 18,000.

Oliver, Who Shot Fisherman, Sent To Insane Asylum

That William Oliver, who killed Joe Morales, a fisherman, at Anaheim Landing on Nov. 6, is insane was the conclusion of several physicians who were in Judge West's courtroom this morning when Oliver was up for hearing upon a charge of insanity brought by Under Sheriff Inman.

Oliver was ordered committed to the insane asylum at Norwalk, where he will be guarded and watched carefully. Should the authorities there conclude that the man is shamming or if he returns to sanity, he will be returned here for disposition by the local courts.

Oliver shot Morales in a quarrel. Morales kicked Oliver's pet cat, and that kick cost Morales his life.

Oliver has been talking constantly of the loss of a lot of horses. He says Mexicans rushed his ranch in Texas and stole the stock, and during the raid he was injured.

EDEN HAY MEASURE IS PASSED BY ASSEMBLY

SACRAMENTO, April 10.—It stirred up a brisk flurry on the floor of the assembly and the call of the house was necessary to get in the votes last night but the Eden hay bill passed 47 to 18.

The measure is not new. Two years ago it was defeated. Backed by the state department of weights and measures, it provides for the weighing of baled hay on sealed scales within ten days of the time it is sold. It also sets a penalty for baling other substances with hay with the intent to increase the weight of the bale. Unscrupulous balers often put clouds of earth, sticks, weeds, etc., in the center of bales, it is declared.

Former Santa Ana Says Basis of Fact for Criticism is Slight

Declaring that the basis of fact for the criticism of the work of the Y. M. C. A. overseas is indeed trivial compared to the great and successful work of the Y. M. C. A. W. A. Benjamin has sent to the Register a strong statement in the defense of the Y. M. C. A. Benjamin is now in the service of the "Y" in England, where he has been for months. He is well known in Santa Ana. For several years he was a soloist at the First Baptist Church.

Benjamin writes as follows: "Recently reports have come to me of criticisms against the Y. M. C. A. uttered by some of our soldiers, who have returned to the United States, complaining of overcharge and discourtesy on the part of the 'Y' secretaries, of being unable to purchase cigarettes and chocolate and of discrimination in favor of officers."

"In some instances these things have been true; there have been a few men who came over in the Y. M. C. A. who have proved dishonest, some who have been 'grouchy' and perhaps some who have shown special favors to officers, but they have been few and far between."

"Of this latter charge, I have only one instance, and that, upon investigation, proved to be misjudgment on the part of the soldier who criticized. This soldier came to the canteen for cigarettes. A few minutes later an officer came to the canteen and the 'Y' man handed over to him a cation of cigarettes. The soldier who had inquired for cigarettes saw the officer get some and went about among his friends, accusing the 'Y' man of discrimination. He did not say anything to the 'Y' man or he could have learned that the officer had made the purchase earlier in the day, when there was a supply, leaving the package to be called for later."

"Of the few who have been dishonest, deliberately overcharging and pocketing the money, or who, being not the 'right sort' for this kind of work, have acted 'grouchy' with everyone who came their way, they have been quickly found out, stripped of their uniforms and sent home in disgrace. Thank God there have been but few of these."

"As is the case in all large organizations, some unworthy ones will slip through in spite of every precaution; and these are the ones who have done things that have brought discredit to us."

Two Must Stand Trial
"Not long ago there was a case of deliberate conspiracy between two 'Y' men, one a minister. They had appropriated about 80,000 francs of money entrusted to them by the boys to be sent home. Of course the Y. M. C. A. would have made good every cent to the soldiers, but fortunately the men were caught 'red handed' and the money recovered. These two men now await trial before military court-martial and will, no doubt, be sufficiently punished."

"On the other hand, there have been instances where criticism might have appeared to be in every sense justified, but which, in every case, upon investigation, would prove utterly without foundation, as in the case previously cited. In this connection there are three points I wish to bring to public notice, and more particularly to the knowledge of the traducers of our organization."

"First: A few words about the canteen. When America entered the war the Y. M. C. A. was specially requested by General Pershing to establish canteens in the 'Y' huts and conduct them, so that the time required to operate them might be saved to the officers and men in the army, for service in the field of action."

Took Up Work Gladly
"Our organization gladly took up this tremendous work, which meant arduous labor for our men and women, with the addition of a multitudinous round of petty detail. I say we took the work up gladly—because it was a labor of love. There were times, however, more or less frequent at the front, when it was impossible to do all that we desired to do."

"We would run short of supplies and there would be no way of replenishing, as we were entirely dependent upon military transportation, which at times was fully occupied in bringing ammunition and food supplies for the army, and taking back wounded to the hospitals."

"And yet, even under such conditions, a few of the men found fault because we could not supply them with cigarettes or chocolate. Let me reiterate: this lack of supply was only the result of circumstances that made necessary the requirement of every possible means of transportation for strictly military purposes, and certainly no fault of the Y. M. C. A."

Overcharging Complaints
"Second: As to the complaints about overcharging. As herein previously stated, in a few instances there was some deliberate overcharging, but it was stopped as quickly as the matter was reported. Then, again, there were instances where the overcharge, upon investigation, proved to be the secretary's ignorance of French money exchange and there, too, we found that the mistakes were made as

Another reason for apparent overcharge was that there were times when a canteen ran short of supplies and, not willing to wait two or three days for transportation facilities, the secretary would go into the open market and buy what he could get to 'tide over.' In such instances the prices were much above the U. S. Commissary prices and although sold absolutely without profit, might very likely seem to the soldier as excessive."

Third: The physical condition of some of the 'Y' secretaries, after a few months' service at the front, and even away back behind the lines, was such that they should have been taken away for rest and quiet, but they could not be spared, and would not give up."

"I am wondering if any of the men back home 'kicking' against the 'Y' secretary because he did not continuously wear the 'smile,' or may have been a bit 'grouchy,' ever stopped to think that perhaps that very man (or woman) might have been, almost unable to stand and serve them, because of the terrible strain of week after week of service—work, from early morning until late at night, a service-work born out of a God-inspired love for mankind, a service-work that had dragged him (or her) away from home, family and friends for no other purpose than to be of service to the boys of the U. S. A."

Suffer Many Hardships

"There have been many, many such cases where our men have stood up under all sorts of conditions of weather and hard work, until it seemed as if the human machine could stand no more. Some of them broke utterly and went home, shattered in mind and body to such an extent that they will never again be able to live, or be of service as they were before. Furthermore, some of our force made the 'supreme sacrifice' and we have all faced the same dangers in coming over and expected the same hardships when we arrived, as all the rest of the A. E. F. have had."

"The basis of fact upon which rests the criticism of some of the fellows who have returned home and a few who are still over here are trivial indeed, and compared with the great work done by the 'Y' for the physical and spiritual welfare of our soldiers, sinks into paltry insignificance. I am in hope that the story of the work of the Y. M. C. A. may be written, if such a thing be possible, for it would be a story of heroism, steadfastness of purpose and self-sacrifice second to none in the history of the war."

SAN DIEGO'S CHIEF OF POLICE RESIGNS

SAN DIEGO, April 10.—Having good on his expressed stand that the administration of a new mayor should not be embarrassed by the presence of hold-over department heads, Police Chief McMullen, tendered his resignation to take effect at the pleasure of the mayor and city council.

The chief says that he will do everything he can to support Mayor Wilde's new administration, except to serve under him as Chief of Police. Mayor Wilde stated that the resignation would be accepted as soon as it is received. He will then appoint Lieutenant of Police Patrick as McMullen's successor.

Chief McMullen was appointed by Mayor Wilde and the council eighteen months ago after the city had been without a chief of police for six months. During the recent campaign Mayor Wilde said he was forced to support McMullen's appointment after his first choice had been turned down by the council.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

PAINT AS AN ASSET.

Bankers Say They Lend More Money on Property When Buildings Are Well Painted.

AN INDICATION OF THRIFT.

One Concern Advances 25 Per Cent. More if Repainting Is Done Every Five Years.

Does it pay to paint carefully farm buildings? Does it add to the selling value of a farm when buildings are properly kept up and regularly painted? A careful inquiry of a number of leading bankers in the Mississippi valley, including such states as Iowa, Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and Missouri, reveals the fact that in nearly every case the bankers did not hesitate to say that they would lend all the way from 5 to 50 per cent. more on land where farm buildings were well painted and kept in good condition. They maintain that well kept-up and well painted buildings and fences are an indication of thrift and that the thrifty farmer is a good client, and to him money can be safely loaned. An average of the returns from these bankers shows that the increased loan value because of painted buildings is around 22 per cent.

Some of these bankers make interesting comment. A Michigan concern says that, while not especially prepared to advise definitely in response to this inquiry, the officers would loan more money on farms where buildings were painted than where they were not so treated. This bank also finds that where houses, barns and fences are well taken care of the farm is a profitable proposition, and bankers in general consider the farmer a good client. Another Michigan bank says "farm buildings out of repair and needing paint indicate that the owner is slow pay." Such farms are rated at about one-third of the assessed value for loans. Where the farm buildings are in good shape the rating is one-half. The president of a middle western bank says that when real estate loans are considered, painted buildings are always taken into consideration in making an estimate. The general appearance of the property surrounding the house and barn and also the fields and fences would be carefully observed. He further says that he has no hesitancy in saying that he would absolutely refuse a loan on farms where the buildings were not kept up and well painted. In his judgment, unpainted farm buildings would reduce the loan value at least 25 per cent.

A Minnesota banker says that he is much more willing to loan money where the buildings are well painted. In his particular case he believes that he would loan 20 per cent. more than if the buildings were not properly taken care of. A farmer who will keep his buildings painted takes a much deeper interest in his work than one who does not. Another Minnesota bank says that well painted buildings have resulted in securing from his bank sometimes as high as 25 per cent. more money than where the buildings are not painted. An Ohio concern says that it will loan 25 per cent. more money on a well kept farm where buildings are painted at least once every five years. A southern Illinois bank says that it has no fixed rule about this, but it does make a decided difference when owners of farm lands apply for loans. If the buildings are well painted and thus well preserved the loan rate would not only be cheaper, but the amount of money borrowed would be larger. A northern Illinois bank does not hesitate to say that it would loan fully 50 per cent. more on a farm where buildings were well painted and in good order than where they were not. The vice president, who answers the inquiry, goes on to say: "There probably are many farmers good financially and morally who permit their buildings to remain unpainted, but as a rule the most substantial people who live in the country keep their buildings well painted."

An Iowa bank, through its vice president, states that it would make a difference of at least 25 per cent. in favor of the farm with painted buildings. Another Iowa concern says that it would make a difference of at least 20 per cent.

All this being true, it is perfectly evident that it is a good business proposition to keep the farm buildings well painted. They not only look better and are more pleasing to the owner, but the farm would sell to better advantage, the loan value of the property would be greatly increased and the buildings themselves would last much longer and need less repair. The American Agriculturist.

PAINT AND ILLITERACY.

Curious Fact Comes to Light That Localities Least Using Books Avoid Paint Also.

Washington, D. C.—A curious fact has been brought to light by the Educational Bureau and the Bureau of Industrial Research here. It is that in the states where illiteracy is most prevalent paint is least used. The paint referred to is the common or barn variety, of course, for the backwoods countries have no need for the finer pigments or facial adornments. It is true, though, that in the sections of all states where white illiteracy is highest painted homes are rare and painted outbuildings and barns are practically unknown. Probably the illiterates do not use paint on their buildings because they do not understand its value as a preservative.

When an engine overheats it is not hard to determine whether the difficulty lies in the cooling system or not. Nevertheless a recent trying experience an owner had in one of the best service stations in the country shows that not every mechanic knows how to look for overheating trouble.

SALVATION ARMY AND RED CROSS BEST FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

Lieut. Swanner, Just Home From Overseas, Gives Many Interesting Facts

Praising the Salvation Army and the Red Cross as the soldiers' best friends overseas, explaining why some American soldiers were kept in the Argonne battle for twenty-five days continuously, and telling in a general way of the movements of local Company L men in the war, Lieut. Charles D. Swanner, recently returned war veteran, furnished one of the most interesting numbers of the Daughters of Veterans' entertainment program at Clune's Theater last night.

Greeted by thunderous cheering when he was introduced, Lieut. Swanner told simply of his experiences overseas, including the saying of goodbye to Sergeant Nathaniel Rochester, who was killed in the "Lost" Battalion, and Ernest Kellogg, who has been missing since that famous battle in which they, along with Captain Holderman, participated so gallantly.

Kept in Battle 25 Days
The speaker told why some American soldiers, including some Orange county men, were kept in the Argonne battle for as high as twenty-five days at a stretch without relief. This was told Swanner at Brest by a colonel from General Pershing's headquarters. "Early in the battle," said Swanner, "the Americans took a number of German prisoners and found enemy soldiers from the same battalion scattered as far as thirty miles on the battle line. This showed the enemy was disorganized and indicated its weak condition. Rather than give the Germans time to reform their troops, the Allied commanders determined upon continuing the drive with all possible force. This necessitated keeping those then on the line in the fighting. It was hard on those men, but it was what wished the war, for when the armistice was signed the Germans were running as tight as they could. Had the armistice not been signed until a few days after November 11, the Allies would have executed a stupendous coup which would practically have annihilated the German army.

"Contrary to many people's idea, the Argonne is a forest of low shrub trees, but the ground was covered with thick vines with many Hun dugouts and machine gun nests, so it was very difficult to penetrate.
"No matter what criticism there may be in some quarters, we all must give credit to the Yanks as A-1 individual soldiers. The American is a wonderful fighter—this war showed that—and he always will be."

Praises War Organizations
"The Salvation Army is a most deserving organization," the speaker declared, "and passed out doughnuts to the men right up at the front where their work was most needed. I used to be one of the many fellows who passed the Salvation Army by, but since I have seen their work among the soldiers I'll never pass the Army's hat by again.

"And the Red Cross, too, did a work which the Yanks all appreciate, and I believe it is the one war organization which has never fallen down. All over France and the United States the Red Cross women were and are always on the job, so that all the way home they were on hand to meet us at every stop with many things for our comfort. These two organizations are the best friends the Yanks had overseas."

Saw Crown Prince's Dugout
On his trip to the front lines late in October where he was assigned to the 11th Infantry of the Fifth Division, Lieut. Swanner passed through the Chateau Thierry country, where they were still burying the dead from the fierce fighting in July. He also visited the Crown Prince's famous dugout, which was several stories deep and fitted up with electricity, gas, and every modern convenience.

The speaker told briefly of Company L's trip overseas in August, with short stop at Liverpool, England, and a longer stay in a "rest camp" which was more of a "work" camp, then of the trip across the channel to France, and thence inland, where the Portier Division was made a replacement division so that it could not enter the fighting as a unit. Soon one-half of Company L had been sent to the front as replacements, some to the First and some to the 26th Division, and most of them got into the St. Mihiel drive. Then Captain Holderman was transferred, and it was really pitiful to see the boys bid their commander goodbye, and he himself was loath to leave "his boys," but the new assignment meant action at the front, which everybody wanted.

"We were all anxious to get up to the front until we got there," Swanner said. "Another officer and I experienced our first shell fire on our way to join the Fifth Division. A shell coming your way sounds a great deal like an electric car coming."

Lieut. Swanner told of some companies starting into battle with 250 men and losing all but sixty, and of a successful night attack in November in which he took part when several towns were taken by the light of flares, which made the battlefield as light as day. He received a machine gun bullet wound on the following day, November 10, as well as gas, and was started to the rear. "I am glad I could go and do my little bit," said Swanner in closing his interesting talk.

Many Pleasing Numbers
Last night's program was most pleasing throughout, many encores being responded to by the well-known Santa Ana artists who took part. Musical numbers included mixed quartet, "America Will Fight For You" (C. A. Gustlin) by Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Slabaugh, Mr. Rowland, Maurice Phillips; solo, "The Corporal's Dittie," Mr. Phillips; solo, "Your Flag and My Flag."

140-MILE PAVED ROAD IN LOWER CALIFORNIA

Governor Cantu Plans to Link United States Border With Port of San Felipe

CALEXICO, April 10.—A concrete paved toll road, 140 miles long, is to be built from Mexicali on the international boundary line to the port of San Felipe on the eastern coast of the Lower California Peninsula. San Felipe is a gulf port with such exceptional natural advantages that railroad and other business men believe that, with adequate transportation facilities, it will become a substantial asset to the Mexican republic and a trading and export center of importance to the United States.

Governor Esteban Cantu of Lower California and men at the head of big fishing interests are financing the project. At the same time reconnaissance parties of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company are in the field making a tentative survey of a railroad line to connect the gulf port with boundary line cities.
San Felipe has long been recognized as a port of vantage from which to exploit the resources of the Gulf of California. The gulf abounds in edible fish of several kinds, the tuna being especially sought for. The port also, in accordance with the opinion of men who have been investigating conditions there, offers several attractive opportunities for profitable exploitation.

To Be Winter Resort

The temperature there is delightful in winter. During the winter months there is a gentle soft breeze from the south, the atmosphere closely resembling that of the South Sea Islands.

These conditions, coupled with the fact that there is a hot, salt spring on the beach lead Governor Cantu and his associates to believe that San Felipe will become a popular winter resort. The road will also pass within two or three miles of Volcano Lake, where there are hundreds of acres of hot, sulphur mud, the curative properties of which for rheumatism and kindred ailments are said to have already been proved.

San Felipe's fishing industry, it is predicted, will make it a busy commercial port. In addition to the enormous quantities of fish that can be taken there are clams, turtles and lobsters and, at low tide, many acres of oysters.

GREASING UNIVERSALS

A dry universal wears rapidly and frequently seizes and breaks if it lacks grease. Do not neglect, therefore, the lubrication of your universal joints. True, it is usually a lot of trouble to grease them. They are under the car and just when you feel like doing the job no grease gun is handy. However, to neglect them is to court disaster. They should be lubricated about once a month.

PRESSURE FOR TESTING

Only a small pressure is required for testing a radiator or a tank—just enough to blow away any dirt that happens to lodge in the leaky place. Half a pound pressure is usually sufficient and will yield a copious supply of bubbles when the radiator or tank is placed in water. When compressed air is lacking, whatever pressure can be applied by the lungs will be found sufficient in most cases.

WRENCH FOR PIPES

A Stillson wrench is not needed very much around the garage, consequently, when its use is desired for the tightening of a pipe on the air pump line or some other place where a pipe is used, none is available. The ordinary monkey wrench will serve if used as follows: Place the wrench around the pipe and insert between the jaws a rat-tail file.

Mrs. Sammis, ladies' quartet, "Spring's Invitation" (Gustlin), Mrs. Coleman, Miss Rittner, Miss Van Cleave, Mrs. Slabaugh (Ebell Club); and solo, "Sons of the Flag," by Mrs. Coleman (Musical Association). Mrs. Nelson gave two readings, "The Witch" and "Auntie Doleful," and a reading, "The Rouge Bouquet," by Ernest Crozier Phillips. All joined in singing "America" at opening of the entertainment and, following introduction of new officers, "The Star Spangled Banner" at the close. The Elks' orchestra furnished delightful music. Mrs. C. I. Talbot was chairman of the committee in charge.

FRENCH PASTRY

—These are better described as a Delicious French Tea Cake, those fancy-looking delicacies that have made the French people famous, being a product of the highest art in cookery. While the flavor of the pastry is the same, there is a wide range in the frosting and coating. The Cherry Blossom is the only place in Santa Ana where you can get French Pastry. Better drop in and buy a few of these fancy delicacies and take them home with you.

In selecting a city attorney the people of Santa Ana should vote for the best man available.

THE WORK OF A CITY ATTORNEY CALLS FOR AN EXPERT IN MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS. IT CALLS FOR ONE WHO KNOWS MUNICIPAL BUSINESS AND WHO KNOWS MUNICIPAL LAW.

One who is not an expert upon municipal affairs can run up a big expense to the city in any of the numerous proceedings needed to carry out city projects. Ordinances that are incorrectly drawn and have to be published over again, cost money.

After all the trouble of trying to pave a street, a city might find its bond issue invalid. Why? Because the city attorney did not steer the ship straight. Such a circumstance can be guarded against by the election of the best available man for city attorney.

J. C. BURKE IS AN EXPERT UPON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS. HE SERVED FOR YEARS AS A DEPUTY COUNTY CLERK. FOR THREE YEARS HE WAS CITY CLERK OF SANTA ANA. HE SERVED TWO TERMS IN THE STATE LEGISLATURE. HE IS SECRETARY OF THE ORANGE COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION AND OF THE ORANGE COUNTY LAW LIBRARY. HE STANDS HIGH AMONG THE ATTORNEYS OF ORANGE COUNTY. IN COMMITTEE WORK AT SACRAMENTO HE WAS THE RECOGNIZED AUTHORITY ON PROPOSED MUNICIPAL LEGISLATION.

VICTORY SLOGAN CONTEST WILL END ON APRIL 5

The last day for the Victory Loan slogan contest will be Saturday, April 5. Any slogan in the mail on that day will be considered in awarding the of $30, $20 and $10.

Slogans need not be in rhyme and although the limit is 12 words, shorter slogans are preferred. There is no limit to the number of slogans each person may send.

Here are samples of the 10,000 slogans that have been received at 420 California street, San Francisco:
"Your bond keeps faith with those who died."
"Insure the Victory with Victory Bonds."
"Victory Bonds Bind Victory."
"Punch the Bond out of Bondage."
"Make good the Liberty that Victory has won."
"You've finished the Kaiser. Now finish the job."
"Don't quit because the Kaiser did."
"Remember the Argonne. Buy a bond."
"If it was worth dying for it's worth paying for."
"Don't be a quitter."

CROOKS AND FOOLS

The American people, called spend-thrifts by the rest of the world, were taught the remarkable lesson of thrift in the four Liberty Loan campaigns which were held before the signing of the armistice November 11. Thousands of persons who had never saved a penny in their lives are now holding Liberty Bonds bought on the installment plan.

If you have bought a Liberty Bond, hold it. You have the best investment in the world. Every day people who have paid hard earned money for their bonds are trading them for worthless stocks of a dozen different varieties. These stocks will never pay them a cent of dividend. They are investing their money in a Mississippi Bubble. Don't let yourself be led astray by a nicely engraved yellow-back certificate that has no guarantee of value and is only supported by gilt edged promises. Before you relinquish your Liberty Bond be certain that you have a better investment. If you follow this rule you will probably keep your bond.

THE FILIPINOS

If it is admitted that the Filipinos are now ready for complete independence—and that is a question which will doubtless be fully debated in congress, when it meets—there could hardly be a more opportune time for granting them their freedom.

There is no question, of course, regarding the policy to which the United States is committed. By repeated and explicit declarations the Filipinos have been promised their independence as soon as they proved themselves capable of self-government. Those pledges were given voluntarily, before the United States became involved in the world war, and before there was any of the current talk of "self-determination of peoples"

as the only democratic and legitimate basis for settling the world's affairs.
In the last few weeks this principle, previously agreed to in theory by all the powers engaged in the war, has been finding trouble in its practical application. France and Italy are hankering in the matter of letting the inhabitants of certain desired territories do their self-determining. So are all the enemy countries and most of the new republics risen out of the war's ruins. Great Britain, though apparently in a reasonable mood as regards new accessions of territory, finds the Irish problem more embarrassing than ever. Japan frankly demands certain islands by right of conquest, and is in trouble over her domination of Korea.

In the midst of all this mess the United States is the only belligerent that asks nothing for herself. It is this disinterestedness that has done more than anything else to give the American delegation its prestige and power at the peace conference. Our material assets, our man-power and our good will are important factors, but the chief factor is our moral strength.

Obviously, we should add to that strength if, at the very moment of insisting that the other powers allow small nationalities to determine their own destiny, we proceeded to exemplify the doctrine by freeing the one nation subject to American rule which wants its freedom.

HIS KIND OF A LEAGUE

An enthusiastic New Yorker has decided that New York is the place for the seat of the League of Nations.
He is, of course, entirely disinterested in this, as his reasons show:

First—This location for the league would be more remote from the quarrels and intrigues of Europe.

Second—Central Park, which is now
"wasted," being only a breathing spot in the center of a crowded city, could be utilized as a building site for the L. of N. "plant."

Third—It would make New York a "Mecca for tourists." Of course the millions who pour through New York's stations and pleasure places now are all dyed-in-the-wool New Yorkers, madly seeking some reason for continuing to live there.

Fourth—Since the United States would probably cede the territory to the league, prohibition would never enter.

Ah, now we've got you, Steve! You mean a Saloon League of Nations.

GIVE THEM GOOD BREAD

An expert who has made a considerable study of economic questions believes that poor bread is responsible for most social disturbances.

The food of the very poor, among whom crime and unrest breed most freely, consists largely of bread. The poorer they are, the more bread they eat and the less of other things. Much of this bread is sour, soggy, indigestible stuff, too sadly suggestive of that Biblical query, "If a man ask for bread, will ye give him a stone?"

Poor food means digestive troubles, and digestive troubles mean irritable tempers. No man can be at peace with the world when his stomach is at war with him.

It is no unusual thing among the well-fed, to experience a sleepless night and a following trying, aggravating day because one article of food proved indigestible.

Make this occasional disturbance a daily thing, make it a matter not of one article which can be eliminated from a varied diet, but the sole food for an entire day and for days at a time. Make this not an individual case, but the rule in millions of cases, and one arrives at a sudden understanding of what poor bread is doing daily to the human and the social system.

"Give them good bread" is a slogan not to be laughed at nor despised.

FROM SHIP TO SHORE

Although the trans-Atlantic flight remains unknown and the airplane which will carry the mail from one continent to another is still in process of development, a special branch of aviation presents a way for speeding up foreign mails.

It is said that before long all the great mail liners may be equipped with seaplanes. When within three or four hundred miles of land the important mail will be packed on to the seaplane, which will carry it to shore in a few hours, thereby saving nearly a day in its delivery.

For instance, a mail steamer bound to England from New York could send its important mail to London, while still four hundred miles west of the Irish coast. New York mail would thus be delivered in London within four days.

Provided that these seaplanes are good at alighting on moving vessels, there is no apparent reason why important mail should not be sent to an outbound ship a day or two out of port in the same way, and then forwarded to its destination in another day. This would still further reduce the time between mailing and delivery.

First the Peace Conference tried transacting business in committee of the whole. Then its powers were concentrated in a committee of ten, and made better progress. Later that committee has been reduced to four.
And from recent indications, that was too many.

Of course, a lot of people take advantage of this daylight-saving arrangements by staying up an hour later by the clock. And then they get sore because they have to go to work so early in the morning.

SMITH CALLS ATTENTION TO ELECTION RESULTS IN CONTEST AT LONG BEACH

Editor Register: An interesting sight may be seen by turning a Kaufman spotlight on the Long Beach election returns to determine its relation to the city election to be held in Santa Ana next Monday. Dr. Crutcher, who is president of the Public School Protective League, and, I understand, president of the Long Beach school board also, was a candidate for re-election. There were eight candidates and three to be elected. Dr.
Crutcher was fifth in the list. Of a total vote of 4882 he received 1923 votes. He has met his Waterloo and shows how the public takes his activities and criticism in Long Beach. He and the society he represents have their hat in the ring in our school election by criticising and censuring
the school board management here.
I have full faith in the present management and that the public will put in votes enough to show under such unwarranted critics, and our school system will continue to be one of the best in the state, as leading educators acknowledge.

J. A. Cranston's work here for thirteen years has spoken for itself and will continue to bear fruit for the future generations.

If one understands the facts in regard to teachers who resigned by request or were discharged for cause, their tales of woe would only strengthen the cause of the present management of our schools, and parents who were offended or angry because children were not permitted to attend school on account of epidemic or contagion in the family have no just cause for censure and should shout
"Amen."

R. R. SMITH.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP

Placencia Courier

Public ownership of school houses, parks, fire apparatus, water systems and libraries is accepted as a matter of course. Why? Because the average man and woman can see these things, can sense a feeling of ownership.

In Orange County there is today an almost unanimous sentiment in favor of a county-owned telephone system.
Why? Because the telephone is a part of the daily life of nearly every person and every one can visualize it.

There is a division of opinion regarding the public ownership of railroads. Why? Because the bearing which the railroad has upon the well-fare of every individual in the nation is, in most cases, indirect. If every one could get a direct visualization of the common ownership of railroads would seem as simple a thing as the common ownership of school houses.

4 IMPORTANT PEACE
QUESTIONS DECIDED

PARIS, April 10.—The situation in Paris has changed almost overnight from one of deepest gloom to the brightest optimism. Four important questions—remuneration, responsibility for the war, Fiume and the Saar valley—apparently have been disposed of.

Additional Editorial Opinion

Register readers may be interested in four letters on the League of Nations that came in too late for our questionnaire report. Three of them seem especially interesting because they are from editors in our own state.

These letters, like others received from California editors, are all in favor of the league. An Independent paper gives its unqualified approval. A Democratic paper says: "Your handling of this subject has been right in line with our opinion on the matter, because it seems to us the only logical method of reasoning to a true American and one who has the slightest interest in the well-being of mankind in general. To make—or endeavor, rather, to make—political capital out of this big project stamps a man not only as a traitor to his country, but to all mankind."

Another paper says: "It is our opinion that a popular vote here on the question of the urgent necessity of a League of Nations would carry three to one. Although this is a Democratic paper, the population is Republican by a slight majority. Nevertheless, we believe a big majority of the Republicans are behind Wilson on the League of Nations."

A Texas editor says: "We are heartily in favor of the proposed League of Nations, and perfectly willing to trust President Wilson and the other Americans representing us in Paris, to see that the rights of the United States are properly safeguarded in the formulation of this document. Our opinion of those leaders who are opposing it is that the majority are self-seeking demagogues and egotists and are over-stepping the bounds of decent partisan politics. The action of the Missouri Legislature in condemning Senator Reed is worthy of the highest commendation and emulation."

STAY IN SCHOOL

Hanford Sentinel

Experience has shown that boys and girls who are restless and dissatisfied with school and even those who feel that they can ill afford further training are often ready to make sacrifice to remain in school, once they realize the value of an education.
The stay-in-school campaign accordingly is designed to show both children and parents that school may mean the difference between a position with a future at steadily increasing wages, and a life of unskilled labor and low pay. It is intended to emphasize the fact that every year of training after a boy or girl has reached the legal working age has a value in dollars and cents and in health and capacity for enjoyment as well.

Communities that make an effort and succeed in keeping their children in school will find education profitable because it will mean for them more efficient workers and better citizens.

CORPORATION REPORT
BLANKS MAY BE HAD

Corporations that have not made their final reports under the income tax will find report blanks at the Chamber of Commerce, the First National Bank and the Orange County Trust and Savings Bank. E. B. Burns, who has been employed as Federal representative here in assisting tax payers in understanding the income tax provisions, states that it is probable that next week a Federal man will be here to help the corporations in making out their completed statements, which must be filed by April 29.

POINDEXTER TO SPEAK

SPOKANE, Wash., April 10.—Senator Miles Poinexter is scheduled to speak on the league of nations in Seattle April 16 and in Tacoma April 18.
Other speaking dates are at Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles and are set for late in April and early in May.

OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs.
This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleansed and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been relieving the weakness and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction.
GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil is infused in odorless, tasteless capsules containing about 9 drops each. Take them as you would a pill, with a swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age. New life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. At the first sign that your kidneys are not working properly go to your druggist and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. But remember to ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed packages.

25 GIRLIES, 4 TO 10,
WANTED IN BIG SHOW

Twenty-five little girls, between the ages of four and ten, and about forty-five "grown-ups," both men and women, are wanted to take part in the Elks' Minstrel and Dancing Festival planned for April 29-30. Those wishing to try out for the affair, which will represent the best talent in Santa Ana, are asked to get in touch with Rufus K. Love who has the production in charge, at Elks' Hall, or with any member of the show committee, which includes H. M. Shisler, W. R. Gordon, Jack Willey, and J. E. Cope. Dancing will form part of the program and dancers are also wanted to participate. Rehearsals will begin soon. That for the little girls being held in the afternoon after school.

MAY SEIZE 500
FOR EVADING
U. S. DRAFT

LOS ANGELES, April 10.—Five hundred men in Southern California face the possibility of prosecution for draft evasion, it was learned today.

A list of 500 cases has been turned over to C. L. Keep, agent of the Department of Justice, for investigation as a result of the investigation of draft records made by Arthur Denison, special agent of the Department of Justice, at Sacramento.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

VENICE.—A resolution asking that at least half the Los Angeles advertising appropriation each year be used for the benefit of the Chamber of Commerce here.

ONTARIO.—The Pacific Electric threatens to reduce its car service from every half hour to hour service, if a proposed ordinance requiring all Euclid avenue cars to make full stops at all intersections between Depot and Fifth streets, becomes a law.

OXNARD.—Oxnard is now getting natural gas from the Ventura oil field which is declared to be the best in the state. It shows 1300 heat units as against 550 units in artificial gas previously used.

LOS ANGELES.—Tina Videneff, 12, of 137 North Glass street, was taken to the county hospital last night, fatally burned as a result of getting too close to a bonfire. The girl, with dress flaming, ran to the home of a neighbor, where four persons received painful burns trying to put out the blaze.

OXNARD.—Miss Isabel Camarillo of Camarillo, daughter of Adolfo Camarillo, has been selected to christen the government boat County of Ventura. The honor comes as a result of Ventura over-subscribing the Liberty Loan quota by a bigger percentage than any other Southern California county.

REDLANDS.—Five members of the George Jackson family became ill of botulism poisoning after eating meat for supper. It is believed they will recover.

PASADENA.—A new school for Mexican children will be erected here on South Raymond avenue in the Mexican quarter, the board of education has decided.

PASADENA.—Pasadena's annual spring flower festival opened this afternoon at Hotel Green and will conclude with a brilliant flower ball at Hotel Maryland Saturday night.

POMONA.—Mayor W. A. Vandegriff was re-elected Pomona's mayor and the anti-smudge ordinance was carried at the hottest municipal election ever held here. Vandegriff, champion of the anti-smudge bill, ran 421 votes ahead of Bert L. Cooper, and the ordinance carried by 175 votes. Other officers elected were: Councilmen, L. R. Clark, C. G. Afterbaugh, clerk, T. R. Trotter; attorney, C. W. Giering; police judge, Harry H. Mason; treasurer, Joe Muller; board of education, E. T. Keiser, H. L. Stahlman, J. F. Rolfeau, W. D. Tubbs.

SANTA MONICA BEACH.—Mrs. Irene Bellinger, wife of a well-to-do Pittsburg man, told the police she had been robbed of jewels valued at hundreds of dollars.

EAGLE ROCK CITY.—The Seniors of Occidental College have selected the following class day officials: Class orators, Alleen Polhamus and Harold Dryden; class prophet, Ruth Pettit; class will, Robert Creswell; class poet, Harriet Davidson; class historian, Sarah Young; class gift, Bobby Robinson; class picture, Katherine West; to lay the brick, James Davis; to plant the ivy, Albill Lindstrom, and to plant the tree, Betty Bryan.

PASADENA.—The United War Veterans of Pasadena is a fraternal organization and will remain so, organizers declare, in spite of radical efforts to get the body to mix in industrial affairs by demanding shorter work days and more pay for returned soldiers, and other concessions.

We are showing some beautiful Easter hats for $5. Mrs. F. B. Wilhelm, 509 North Main street.

ODD NEWS NOTES

CHICAGO.—A brewery truck which disappeared with $2000 worth of liquor returned from its debauch today without the booze. It had been in an encounter with some jagged glass.

PORTLAND, Ore.—Advertising does not always bring results. The city has been unsuccessfully advertising for some time for a cook—in the municipal mailpo office.

MOLINE, Ill.—Moline's Victory Loan quota may be considered guaranteed. Every barbor here has pledged himself to talk of nothing else while on duty.

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—Frank J. Ridy was six feet tall and weighed 212 pounds. His wife weighed 110. Ridy pleaded self-defense when hauled into court on a wife beating charge.

ITALY WILL HAVE BIG NEW SHIPYARD

GENOA, April 10.—A company which includes a group of Italian and American capitalists among others is arranging to construct a great shipyard at the Marina di Carrara in Tuscany. It will be the largest in Italy, and probably in Europe, since it will contain fifteen ways for building large ships, with an unlimited number for smaller vessels. It will occupy the entire water front between the Parmignola torrent and Via Bassa Grande which skirts the villa Lazzoni in such a way that this also, with all the adjoining ground fenced with iron will be included in the tract to be expropriated.

That will afford a frontage of 1000 meters on the sea, which will become really 1,300 meters, because the plan of the yard includes also another tract with a frontage of 300 meters near the beginning of the Hemholt villa, now the Caffsch.

The depth of the yards leaving the seashore extends as far as the Via Della Bassa Grande, about 150 meters. A mole will be built for the use of the yard to enclose a harbor, which will be of service in launching. It will be of reinforced concrete, will have a linear length of 1,500 meters and will inclose a sheet of water 1,000 meters long and 400 wide. Other jetties in the sea will serve in outfitting ships.

Besides the yard will have its own railroad facilities connecting with the Marmifera line at Marina, as well as with a higher spur of the Marina-Aveza branch of this road. It will have an enormous interior basin, and extensive work shops for every department of building and outfitting ships with barracks for the men and offices for the company.

CALIFORNIA'S WOMEN MUST TEACH NATION

By Mrs. E. R. Brainerd, California State Chairman National Woman's Liberty Loan Committee

Women of California, hark! Our Government comes to us next April with the last Liberty Loan—the Victory Loan. We women of California have been accorded a place in the affairs of state. We must justify that trust by recording ourselves further as financial factors in the state and nation. Our work must stand out boldly by itself so that all may see that women can actually conduct financial campaigns when the Government calls.

MRS. E. R. BRAINERD

Not only must we do a large share in swinging the Golden State over the top in the Victory Loan, but we must make such a showing that women throughout the nation can point to us and say:

"Women can be all around citizens. It is not theory. The California women proved it in the Victory Liberty Loan."

Let this be our slogan for the next few months: "A hard job but for that reason the best." It is a challenge. Women of California, don't fail! Start now.

"At a time when the divisions on its flanks were faltering, and even falling back, the Ninety-first pushed ahead and steadfastly clung to every yard gained."—Official Communiqué.

The Ninety-first was from the Pacific Coast. Remember those boys in the Victory Liberty Loan.

Lieut. Swanner To Tell War Story At Temple On Friday

The war overseas, as seen by a Santa Ana man, will be a feature at the Temple Theater during Friday, Saturday and Sunday, in connection with a big Mary Pickford film, "Captain Kidd, Jr."

Lieut. Chas. Swanner, one of Santa Ana's returned heroes, is the man who will tell of his experiences and observations overseas. He is the first officer of old Company L to return home. He will tell how it feels to hear the big shells whiz close by; what the boys of Company L did for world freedom; how he personally led a company of over 200 men in an attack on a village in the hands of the enemy and returned with only a handful of his men left; what the Red Cross and the Salvation Army did for the boys in the fighting zones.

Lieut. Swanner is a keen observer and has the faculty of describing his experiences in a most entertaining manner. Capt. Koepsel and the Seventeenth Separate Company will be out in full force and will stand at attention while Lieut. Swanner is telling his story.

"SAY, BILL—"

Well, Bill, it's sort of quiet since the Kaiser cut and run. Although our job's not finished, why, the toughest part is done. And today I got to wonderin' just concernin' me and you.

Of how it's goin' to be with us, and what we're goin' to do.

For we've heard the shells a-whinin', and a-poppin' overhead.

And we've seen the pale moon shinin' on the tangled heaps of dead.

We have seen the rockets soarin' and we've heard the cannon roarin'.

And we've felt the sting of fightin' when our eyes was seein' red.

For the time is soon a-comin' when together you and me will be packin' on a troopship for our trip across the sea.

And first thing before we know it, we'll be walkin' up the street.

We swung along, seems no time since, with restless, eager feet.

And you'll go to sellin' sugar in your dinky little store.

And you'll swear the eggs is fresh laid, as you've very often swore.

And I'll shine the same old trousers on the same old office seat.

As I pound the same old clikker that I always used to beat.

We who've smelled the smoke of battle and have tingled to the thrill.

Of the joyous love of conquest and the maddened lust to kill.

We'll go back and maybe marry, now the battle flags is furled.

Settle down and raise a family—Hell, Bill, this is sure some world!

—Harry N. Crookston, in New York Herald.

A concert by the men's Glee Club of Occidental College is scheduled for tomorrow night at eight o'clock in the First Presbyterian church.

The club this year has been strengthened by the return of several members formerly in the service, and the program they present is unusually good.

The boys are making a tour of the state, with a trip planned in the north in the latter part of this month, and this will be the only opportunity for those who appreciate a good glee club to hear the Occidental boys. The members will be entertained in Presbyterian homes tomorrow.

There will be no admission charge, but to defray the expenses of the trip a free-will offering will be made at the doors. The Presbyterian Christian Endeavorers, who are in charge of arrangements, extend a cordial invitation to all who enjoy a good concert to come and bring their friends, and it is hoped that a packed house will be ready to greet the Occidental boys Friday night.

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church held its April meeting at the beautiful home of Mrs. J. H. Rankin, yesterday afternoon. This meeting partook of the nature of a jubilee, as the ladies of the society are rejoicing over the forty-two new members, and in the success of work accomplished during the past year.

Mrs. A. M. McDermott had charge of the devotionals, bringing an inspiration to her hearers upon the subject of "Christian Fellowship," illustrating her remarks from the life of Paul.

During a short business meeting arrangements were made for the Mission Study class, which will be under the capable management of Mrs. C. L. Montgomery. Mrs. H. A. Allen gave an interesting report from the Presbyterian.

She spoke especially of the address given by Dr. Cram, a missionary from Persia, wherein he told of the terrible persecutions of both the foreign and native Christians in that land, by the Turks, during the war.

Mrs. Harry Lewis brought an expression of gratitude to the society from Mrs. A. R. Rowley, who is now in the Good Samaritan hospital in Los Angeles. All rejoiced that she is soon to be removed to the home of Mrs. H. Heninger, a former member of this society.

A social hour followed during which the ladies had an opportunity to welcome the new members, and to become acquainted with one another, during which time the social committee served dainty refreshments.

The ladies of the W. R. C. will give a tea tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at G. A. R. hall. Mrs. Ella Wilson, the chairman promises a bountiful spread, and the program, in charge of Mrs. Estelle Ludwig, is sure to please.

The ladies who are chairmen of the booths at the bazaar to be held by the W. R. C. on April 19, at the Armory, will confer tomorrow afternoon as to the final arrangements.

Toroso Rebekah lodge held a very interesting meeting last night when a goodly attendance enjoyed a social evening at I. O. O. F. Temple. Seven applications for membership were received and these applicants, together

AN ENDLESS CHAIN
Here is the endless chain of recommendations for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. There is hardly a town or village in the United States from which women have not written letters telling of health restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If you are suffering from some female trouble, ask your neighbor if she has ever used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In many cases you will find that she has regained health by its use and will recommend it to you.—Advertisement.

with other elected members, will be inducted into the mysteries of the Rebekah degree at the next regular meeting on April 23.

Remarks and smiles by Brother G. H. Scott were unusually interesting. George Peters explained the big picnic to be held at Orange County Park on April 26, when the celebration of the centennial of Oddfellowship will be enjoyed. Dale Peters talked along the line of municipal ownership of I. O. O. F. buildings. Mrs. Mullinix, who leaves shortly for Canada, made a few farewell remarks. The resignation of the efficient secretary, Mrs. Jennie Smith, was accepted with much regret, and Mrs. Alice Gould was elected to fill out the unexpired term.

Mrs. Victoria Adams, noble grand, announced that staff practice would be held next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock and urged all members to be in their places.

A letter of sympathy was sent to Mr. Walter Tedford because of the recent death of his mother, Mrs. Nancy Tedford.

The ladies of St. Joseph's Catholic church will hold another cooked food sale on Saturday in the room formerly occupied by the Red Cross Shop at the Armory. More home-made bread, pies, cakes and other good things will be on sale.

A party of Santa Ana people who are stopping at Santa Paula temporarily had a delightful day at Sulphur Springs, near Santa Paula, on Sunday last. A picnic dinner was one of the features, wild flowers gathered from the mountain sides were used in decorating the table, to say nothing of Jimmie Vance and his pumpkin pies. The men members of the party are engaged under Fern Bishop in building a wainut packing house at Santa Paula and have been there for seven weeks.

Those enjoying the day's outing were Mr. and Mrs. Fern Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Park Ash, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bishop and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Riddell, Jimmie Vance, Mr. Sawdy and Mr. Whitsell, all of Santa Ana and S. M. Wheeler and J. W. Hilton of Los Angeles.

On Tuesday morning the Epworth League met at the church for a picnic trip to the beach at Balboa. After several merry games in the sand, most of the party hiked along the ocean front to the jetty, while the rest remained in charge of the luncheon. The young people thoroughly enjoyed the good things to eat, and after luncheon were very happily surprised to see coming toward them along the beach their pastor, Rev. A. T. O'Rear, and his son Edward. When the visitors had been properly refreshed, the picnic party tramped to Balboa, where the remainder of the time was spent boat riding on the bay.

The Red Cross sewing and knitting departments are nearing the end of their work, and if the workers will put forth the special efforts that is now desired the work can be completed with dispatch. In the sewing, all classes are urged to do their very best this week and next week until the work is done. Each class member is urged to be present with her class, so that the fine record that the classes have all made may be kept up to the very last. The leaders are very anxious to have the work finished next week. Garden Grove and Huntington Beach branches have finished their assignments and have turned the articles in.

Miss Minter, chairman of the knitting, is very anxious to have all of the yarn out this week. There remains enough yarn for a number of sweaters, and it is Miss Minter's urgent request that anyone who will undertake to knit a sweater call for the yarn at once. There is only a little sock yarn left.

The Westlami Campfire girls held their meeting last evening at the home of Marguerite Dickson, the gathering also helping Miss Dickson celebrate her birthday. After the business meeting, the evening was spent in playing games. Delicious refreshments were served. The Campfire girls are sorry to lose one of their number, Vera Elwing, who is leaving Santa Ana. Miss Perkins, the Campfire guardian, was a welcome guest.

Those who enjoyed the evening were: Mabel Harvey, Marguerite Dickson, Evelyn Hoffman, Ruth Langley, Lois Sweet, Pauline Carnahan, Jean Winslow, Gladys Swarthout, Vera Elwing, Lillias Shoemaker. The visitors were Vera Knight, Elva Chapman Olive Jiles and Zora Hagaman.

COURTHOUSE NOTES

Arthur Vanneste of Los Alamitos has sworn to a complaint charging driving of an automobile on the Los Alamitos-Artesia road. Vanneste said May had a trailer attached to his machine, and in passing Vanneste carelessly let the trailer hit Vanneste's rig.

Deputy Sheriff Fowler and Constable Elliott went to La Habra yesterday and took Charles E. Newman, a Los Angeles boilermaker, in charge. Newman is believed to be insane. Later in the day he was turned over to his brother, who came here from Los Angeles.

LONG-WEARING SOLES MEAN LOW SHOE BILLS

"I have never been able to get half the service from other soles that I get from Neolin Soles," says H. H. Shellenberger, a traveling salesman of Easton, Pa.

Long service from the soles means lowered shoe costs, for that is where shoes wear out quickest. When next you need new shoes buy them with Neolin Soles. You pay no more than for shoes that give less wear—and you can get them in many styles for men, women, and children.

Have these durable, comfortable and waterproof soles put on your old shoes, too. All good repair shops carry them. They are made, scientifically, by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels, guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

NEED BEADS FOR CONVALESCENTS AT KEARNY

Wounded Find Bead Work at Hospital Serviceable and Profitable

Returning from a visit to the hospital at Camp Kearny, where she had the privilege of going through the wards and seeing and talking with the wounded recovering there, Mrs. A. J. Padgham brings the information that old beads are in big demand at the hospital. Residents of Santa Ana who have beads of any size or color are requested to gather them up and send them to the Chamber of Commerce, where they will be assembled and shipped to the San Diego War Camp Community Service. Small bottles and boxes suitable for packing the beads are also wanted.

Beads are being used by the convalescents in the making of fobs and necklaces under instruction of teachers who are competent to direct them in the making of articles from beads. The men are not being taught this as a vocation, but as a means of giving them something to do and think about to take their minds off their condition. They sell their creations.

It is necessary for men with arm wounds to manipulate their fingers and muscles of the arms in order to strengthen them and bring them back to their former strength and the manufacture of articles from beads has been found most serviceable in this work.

Mrs. Padgham inspected some of the articles made by the wounded men and was surprised at the fine work done by them. Each is given opportunity to exercise his own ingenuity in designing and executing work.

Mrs. Padgham, who had charge of the "Slacker Record" drive, is just in receipt of an acknowledgment of the arrival of a shipment at the hospital at Ft. Bayard, N. M. The letter is from Lieut. Wm. H. Fowle and he advises that sixty new phonographs had just been received for use by the men in the service. Mrs. Padgham still has a number of records left from the number donated during the drive. These will be placed in time.

DISTRICT CONVENTION HELD ORANGE TODAY

The San Diego district convention of Women's Foreign Missions is being held at Orange today.

The second quarterly meeting of the Pacific Branch of the Foreign Missionary Society held in the Methodist church at Orange yesterday was attended by about 150 delegates and visitors. The states of California, Nevada and Arizona were represented. Dinner was served by the ladies of the Presbyterian church. The program as printed in the Register Monday was carried out in detail. An address by Miss Drummer on "Africa, the Land of the Dark Trail" was a feature of the session last night.

ASK IDENTIFICATION OF SOLDIER AGENTS

With men in uniform going about the country soliciting and selling patriotic articles with appeal to the patriotic spirit of the persons approached there is possibility of unscrupulous men preying on the credulity of the public. There is no doubt but that men are appearing in army suits who are not entitled to wear them. Various war societies have cards of identification and the public is advised that when a man in uniform presents something for a sale and offers his service in the army as an excuse for his position, identification should be demanded.

MEN OF 364TH MAY BE ENTRAINED TOMORROW

The 364th Regiment of Western troops, is expected to entrain from New York, including a number of Santa Ana men, for Camp Kearny, on Friday and probably will reach there the following Thursday.

The 364th will travel as a unit, and probably require about eight trains. Two thousand members of the regiment, comprising nine companies of the medical detachment, are at Camp Mills, L. I., while the remaining 800 made up of detachments of various descriptions are at Camp Merritt, N. J.

LIMIT GRADUATION DRESS COST TO $12

LONG BEACH, April 10.—An appeal made by high school senior girls resulted in a decision by the "economy committee" of the faculty that a higher maximum shall be allowed this spring in the amount the girls may spend for their graduating dresses than was permitted last year. A new limit of $12 was fixed.

"Owing to the present high prices of cotton dress materials, the maximum was raised," the committee announced. "At this price, a simple gown of the less expensive wash silks can be obtained. Therefore, the increased allowance seems true economy and also will give great satisfaction to the girls."

News Briefs of City and County

George E. Shriver and family, former residents of this city, will return here from Orange about the first of May. He has sold his valuable eight-acre ranch at Walnut and Tustin avenues, Orange, to Roy Barker, taking as part payment the residence property at 715 North Main street, this city. The family has been residing at Orange for eight years.

Paul N. Cozad, son of C. C. Cozad, 804 East First street, is probably now on the Atlantic ocean enroute home, his family having just received a card announcing he was ready to sail. He is a member of the 361st infantry.

The annual business meeting of the United Presbyterian church will be held at the church this evening with dinner at 6:30 preceding. Annual reports of the heads of different departments of the church will be presented and church officers will be elected.

A $15 fishing rod, won as a prize for catching the biggest fish, during the season at Camp Levee, has just been received by Scott Thompson of Los Angeles. Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson of 820 East Fourth street. The prize trout, tipping the scales at six pounds, two ounces, was donated by Thompson to the Red Cross and sold for $6.

William Anderson, prominent hotel man of Omaha, Neb., arrived Tuesday, having spent two months in San Francisco, before coming to Santa Ana. Mr. Anderson expects to remain in Southern California for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Minter of San Francisco are visitors here at the home of Mrs. Minter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Leonard. They came by motor and were accompanied by Gerald Schwenk, just returned from ten months' work as a mechanic in the aviation service of the army in France.

Mrs. Beren Walker is confined to her bed suffering from bruises and dislocation of the right elbow sustained in an automobile accident while enroute to Laguna Beach. She is at the home of her mother, at 319 East Washington avenue.

It is reported that A. S. Bradford of Placentia, refused $250,000 for a 50-acre tract that he holds near Richfield.

There will be a general meeting of the growers of the Orange County Produce Growers' Association at the Orangethorpe school house tomorrow night. Steps for incorporating the association will be taken at that time.

American Red Cross In Berlin Can Stand Siege

BERLIN, April 10.—A revolution can't starve out the American Red Cross workers in Berlin. They are prepared for any emergency that will not last over a week or ten days. In Berlin revolutions do not last longer than that.

The Red Cross mission, made up of both men and women, is headed by Col. Carl Taylor of New York, and was sent to Berlin and to the camps to render surgical and medical aid to the half million neglected Russians interned in Germany, and give them clothing and other necessary articles. These Russians have been treated like animals by the Germans.

Supplies come in from Copenhagen, and are distributed from Berlin to the different camps. At present, only British, French and Italian missions will assist soon.

Col. Taylor, and his assistant, Col. Edward W. Ryan, have established headquarters in the old American Chamber of Commerce. The personnel lives in the Palace Hotel. Food supplies have been distributed in both places and in a warehouse, so that in case of an outbreak the mission can live without risking machine gun fire. The Red Cross personnel includes: Capt. H. B. Carter, Quincy, Illinois; Dr. James A. Babbitt, Philadelphia; Major Benj. Hodge, Redlands, Cal.; Major R. P. Sherman, Los Angeles; Capt. Wm. W. Dean, St. Paul; H. T. Wagner, Indianapolis; Dr. E. J. Valdes, Manila; Dr. W. H. Lewis, Cincinnati; J. V. Malcolm, Atlanta; Geo. L. Munn, Seattle; L. G. Peterson and F. W. Pratt, Montgomery, Ala.; M. A. Hardin, Santa Monica, Cal.; S. L. Layton, Georgetown, Md.; C. H. Hathaway, Chicago; Wesley Robbins, Palo Alto, Cal.; and F. D. Hopkins, White Plains, N. Y.

The women, chaperoned by Mrs. C. E. Lushington, Eastbourne, England, are Misses Jane Ernest, New York; P. C. Ravens, Ravenswood, Illinois; Maud Murray, Vancouver; Mary Smith, Newton, Kansas, and Lois Bailey, New York. These Americans will stay until the job is done.

OBITUARY

James Henry Wheeler

In the passing of James Henry Wheeler many of the older people of Santa Ana will recall his active and useful life and sincerely regret that he is gone. Mr. Wheeler was born in Illinois, July 6th, 1844. He moved with his people to Missouri when he was eight years old, and at 16 the family moved to Iowa. In 1864 he married Miss Mary Phipps. To their home came six children, four of whom are still living. They are, Alonzo of Lakefield, Minnesota; Disberry, of Santa Ana; William of Chehalis, Washington; and Eliza Justice of Perry, Iowa.

At the age of 30 he was obedient to the Gospel's requirements and soon began to preach. He was a faithful minister of the Christian church for twenty-seven years. At that time he was forced by ill health to give up the active ministry.

In 1910 he came to California, where he met Mrs. Minnie B. Travis, to whom he was married January 18th, 1911.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler lived on their ranch near Santa Ana until last fall, when it was sold and they moved to Harbor City, where they were located at the time of his death. Mr. Wheeler was a very active man. He had done a great deal of carpenter work in his earlier life, and so recently planned to build a home. He had nearly completed the building with but a few days' assistance when he was taken sick. He passed after a few days of illness to the eternal home, the mansion not made with hands eternal in the heavens and his good works do follow him.

He had lived to a ripe old age; had finished his work; was ready to de-

AMUSEMENTS

Clune's Santa Ana Theater
"I don't believe it. You can't tell me that the same woman is playing both those parts."

This remark was actually made by a lady who was witnessing Miss Marie Gilmer's remarkable performance of the dual role of Jean Ingleside and Marie Dubois, in the sensational comedy-drama, La Belle Marie, the next play that the Frederick Harrington Players will present at Clune's Santa Ana theater next Friday and Saturday, April 11-12.

And it is really hard to believe that the simple little country maiden, in the first act, and the scheming French adventuress in the rest of the play, are both the same, so cleverly does Miss Gilmer characterize the two parts. The author is Hal Reid and the company, the Frederick Harrington Players.

SAM STEIN'S STATEMENT

TO THE VOTERS:

It may not be ethical for a candidate for the Board of Education to advertise, but as I am a believer in the value of advertising, and in view of the fact that a great many different things have been said for and against me, I am going to state a few facts about my candidacy in plain, every-day language—language that will leave no doubt in your mind as to where I stand.

It has been said that I am seeking election on the Board of Education for the purpose of advancing my own financial interests. To this I want to make the following statement:

The law forbids School Boards from making contracts with, or entering upon business relations with any member of the Board.

I was fully aware of this provision when I decided to run for this office and I realized that should I be elected I would lose my sales to the Santa Ana School Board, which, as a matter of fact, amounts to very little in the way of profits.

I am seeking the office for three reasons:

First: Because I have two children attending school and am therefore interested in the welfare and progress of our schools.

Second: Because I would consider it an honor to be chosen by a majority of the voters to so important and responsible a position. To a certain extent the "best" of us are susceptible to a little flattery.

Third: Because I have had seventeen years' experience in the school supply business RIGHT HERE IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, both wholesale and retail, and in my dealings with schools and school boards I have acquired a great deal of information that should be of some benefit to our own schools.

There has been some little effort to inject the religious element in this school board election. I do not believe in mixing religion or politics in either business or in the schools.

While on the subject of religion, I wish to state that I am of the Jewish faith and ABSOLUTELY NO OTHER, reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

My educational qualifications have been worrying some.

FOR THOSE WHO ARE UNACQUAINTED WITH MY PAST I WILL STATE THAT ALTHOUGH I BELONG TO NO LEARNED (HIGHBROW) SOCIETIES, I HAVE HAD A FAIR EDUCATION.

I AM A GRADUATE OF ONE OF THE LARGEST HIGH SCHOOLS IN NEW YORK CITY.

I ATTENDED THE COLLEGE OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK FOR TWO YEARS, AND I LATER GRADUATED FROM THE BARON DE HIRSCH TRADE SCHOOL, WHICH IS KNOWN AS ONE OF THE MODEL TRADE SCHOOLS OF THE EAST.

Beside this, I have had some little education in the business world, and should I be elected it will be my purpose to give the schools the same attention that I give my own business and you all know what THAT means.

I will do my best to see that every dollar is wisely spent.

With regard to outside interference in our school matters, I am of the opinion that we can find enough capable men and women to handle our school affairs without going to Los Angeles or Long Beach "busybodies." Besides, we have certain school laws laid down for us and you will surely agree with me that all laws should be obeyed.

To those who have asked whether I am for or against the present superintendent, I wish to say that to date I have heard no valid reasons why he should not be continued in office.

The main objections that have reached me have been founded largely upon personal grievances and have not seemed worthy of serious consideration. Unless more weighty objections are raised against Superintendent Cranston, he will have my vote when the matter of superintendency comes up, if you deem it wise to elect me.

Aside from all the above, I think I am a pretty decent sort of a chap, if I do say so myself, and I hope enough of you think the same, because now that I am in the race, I really want to be elected.

But don't vote for me unless you are convinced in your own mind that I am big enough and broad enough (I mean mentally, of course), to make a good man on the board.

SAM STEIN, Of Course.

THE LATEST--CAN YOU BEAT IT?

It has been called to my attention that a prominent, well-meaning, but misguided woman is accusing me of being a foreigner. Well, at last you really have something on me. I must plead guilty! I was born in Russia in 1884 and "imported" to this country in 1886. Figure the difference out for yourself. If it wasn't that I am so fat and have that well-fed look I suppose the next thing would be to accuse me of being a Bolshevik.

HANSON, FIGHTER AND DREAMER, WHOSE DREAMS COME TRUE

Seattle's Notable Executive Captivates Auditors at Riverside Reception

(BY THE EDITOR)
Through the courtesy of Mayor Veele, and the hospitality of Mayor Porter of Riverside, I enjoyed a rare privilege yesterday—that of meeting Mayor Ole Hanson of Seattle and hearing him speak.

Hanson is one of the most charming men I have ever met. He looks like the pictures I have seen of Byron, the poet—that is, like Byron would have looked had his hair been white while his face was still young.

Hanson is a poet as well as a soldier—soldier of the common good—valiant fighter for pure but practical democracy. He has the face of a dreamer lit by the fires of a crusader's soul.

He is a dreamer—a dreamer who makes his dreams come true.

It is at once inspiring and pathetic to see Hanson's dauntless soul scouring his frail and suffering body into action. He impresses you as a man who feels that God or circumstance has brought him into national prominence in order to give force and impetus to the message he would carry to torn and suffering humanity and a menaced world-civilization.

Did I say Ole Hanson looks like Byron? He does. And he also looks like Lincoln. Can you conceive of such a composite "physicality," mentality, spirituality? It's there, all right. And he makes you think of Lincoln by what he says.

For instance, when he says, in effect, that law and order democracy can't be maintained in America unless it triumphs in Europe over anarchistic bolshevism, you hear the sweet and solemn voice of Lincoln saying, "This nation cannot exist half slave and half free."

MAYOR HANSEN ADDRESSES TWO RIVERSIDE GATHERINGS

RIVERSIDE, April 10.—In two ringing addresses, one at a gathering of city officials and mayors from a dozen Southern California cities, and another in White Park on the occasion of the dedication of a memorial, Mayor Hanson found fitting opportunity to preach 100 per cent Americanism and to warn both capital and labor against the menace of Bolshevism.

"It is remarkable," said Mayor Hanson in responding to the introduction of Mayor Horace Porter, "that when an official does his plain duty in an emergency it becomes a matter of national interest. Doubtless it is the fault of mayors, rather than that of the people, that executives do not respect the badge of office that should attach to their office. The badge of office is often the badge of fear. I have known officials to stand in the way of public improvements because of the fear of certain interests, or of the condemnation of some little newspaper."

"People know pretty well what their mayors are doing, about as well as their wives. The people have pretty long memories and will not return to office a man whom they think has not done his duty."

Referring to world conditions, Mayor Hanson said: "A peace treaty must not be signed until it contains a guarantee of everlasting peace. Bolshevism must fall, or all government must fall. It is a mass attack upon civilization. Unless the nations unite to free the world and emerge from the peace conference with a clean-cut document in which they agree that war shall no more devastate the world, within five years they will fall before an enraged people."

Mayor Hanson's second address, which was tribute to motherhood, was delivered on the occasion of the dedication by the French colony of a bronze tablet in White Park, dedicated to the mothers of Riverside county whose sons had a part in the great war.

M. Louis Stentous, French consul of Los Angeles, presented the tablet in a brief address delivered in both French and English.

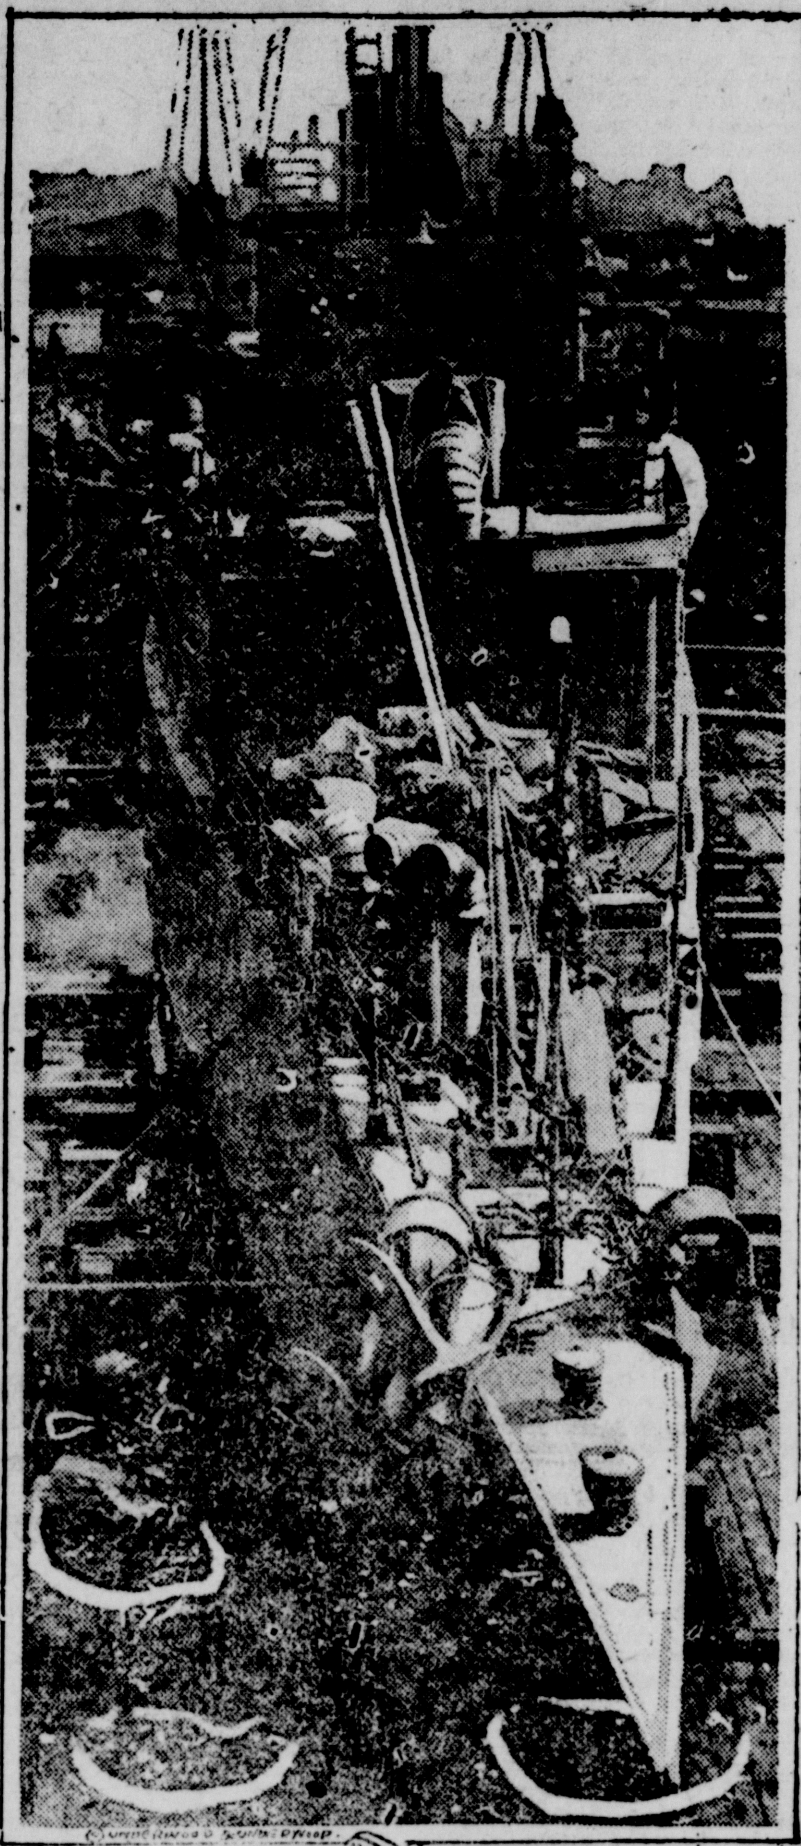

Buy cakes and pies and everything nice. On Saturday next at the Armory near. And you can eat, on Sunday so near. A good dinner with cost not dear.

CUMMINGS IS GUEST OF OHIO DEMOCRATS

COLUMBUS, O., April 10.—Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, was the guest of Ohio Democrats here today. Cummings addressed state and county committee members, Democratic editors and public officials at noonday luncheon at the Southern Hotel. This afternoon he will confer with state leaders at an informal reception. This evening he will address a public gathering. Governor Cox and United States Senator Atlee Pomerene of Ohio are also expected to speak.

Wicked Little Speed Boats With Concrete Prows Are Sent to Archangel to Co-operate With the American Fighters

NEW YORK, April 10.—Ever see a Ford Eagle, otherwise known as a "sea diver"?

Well here is a close-up view of the compact, wicked little sub-chasers designed to put Hun U-boats where they belong—at the bottom of the ocean.

These effective, speedy boats are fitted with solid concrete bows which were to have been used to ram the Teuton sea vipers but the Huns quit fighting before the Eagles could get busy with their talons.

MOTHERS' CONGRESS AT GROVE SATURDAY

GARDEN GROVE, April 10.—The Fourth District annual meeting of Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers Associations will be held in the school auditorium at Garden Grove Saturday, April 12, from 9:30 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. An interesting and instructive program has been arranged. A noon luncheon will be served and each one wishing to partake will bring one article of food. Everybody, member or not, will be welcomed.

Fashions Now More Sensible

The Tuesday Afternoon Club was entertained by Mrs. J. D. Price and Mrs. H. Basey at the home of Mrs. Basey. Responses to roll call were given by notes on spring styles. A debate was given, the question: "Resolved, that fashions of today are more modest and sensible than they were fifty years ago." Affirmative, Mrs. W. J. Newsom and Mrs. C. B. Scott; negative, Mrs. J. D. Price and Mrs. H. Basey. The judges were Mrs. J. O. Arkle, Mrs. Cloyes and Mrs. King. They reported a tie but on request for a deciding vote the judges reconsidered and gave the affirmative the decision by one point. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Charles Price of Santa Ana. The next regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Knapp, Mrs. J. O. Arkle will be hostess to the club in their annual "evening" entertainment for the husbands, at her cottage at Sunset Beach, Friday evening, April 18th. Part of the evening will be spent grunion fishing.

Brief Notes and Personals
Mrs. G. F. Crane invited a number of neighbors and friends to spend the evening at her home Monday and surprise her mother, Mrs. Reed, on her 87th birthday. Refreshments were served and a delightful time enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Bloodgood, who have been visiting the former's sister, Mrs. W. H. Newcomer, have moved to Santa Ana.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Anderson were over-Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Jackson at their Laguna Beach cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lake and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bowers, of Santa Ana, motored to Mojave Saturday, returning Sunday.

Mrs. Lea Warren, reporting for the Ladies Aid, stated that the society had received $79.76, or which amount $25 had been invested in War Savings Stamps. Mrs. E. H. Prince, for the Red Cross activities of the aid society, reported that 178 Red Cross garments had been made, 107 garments for relief work, 10 comfort bags and 23 holders for knives, forks and spoons, a total of 315 pieces.

The Women's Missionary Society has an enrollment of 66, according to the report of Mrs. F. S. Todd, with an average attendance of 60. The remarkable showing in attendance is attributed to the new system adopted by the society. The ladies of the congregation have been divided into twelve groups, with each group having full charge of a meeting once during the year. Thank offerings amounted to $786.

John Henderson, for the Session, reported twenty-seven meetings during the year, eleven regular and sixteen special.

All reports were accepted and filed. Salary For Treasurer.

The salary of Treasurer W. W. Hoy was raised from a "thank you" job to $100 a year.

Officers were elected as follows: Chairman, Harvey Allen; Clerk, J. L. McFadden; treasurer, W. W. Hoy; trustees for two year term, Harry Warner and F. S. Todd; congregational correspondent, Mrs. Steele Finlay; chief usher, F. S. Todd.

The sum of $1800 was pledged for local and foreign missions.

Plans for making alterations and improvements in a basement room to adapt it to use of the young people for athletic and other purposes were presented by Archie Ralitt and were approved by the members. The cost will be approximately $700 and teams of boys have already been organized for canvassing among the members for subscriptions to the fund.

LOCAL PASTOR IS GIVEN A SALARY INCREASE OF $300 YEAR

United Presbyterian Members Show How They Appreciate Rev. Kennedy's Work

The Spirit of "the laborer is worthy of his hire" was given practical application by the congregation of the United Presbyterian church at its annual meeting last night when it voted unanimously to increase the salary of Rev. J. G. Kennedy from $1500 to $1800 a year. It is concrete evidence of the appreciation of the services of the popular pastor by the members of his flock. Rev. Kennedy has served the church for the past five years. The year just closed has been one that has brought happiness to the entire membership for every obligation against the church was wiped out. It is free of debt today and the new year opens with the congregation relieved of the burden of interest and with bright prospects for active and efficient church work.

Reports of departmental heads evidenced the activity of the members during the year, and in each department progress was shown, with interest growing in the work of the various branches. The report of the pastor showed that the members had been liberal in their contribution, the average for the entire membership being $67.40 for the year. The total number of members is 285 and the total contributions were $16,387.

Gave Liberally.
"The financial reports of the year show a commendable spirit of liberality on the part of most of our membership," said Rev. Kennedy, in making his fifth annual report. "Through a year of high cost of living you come up at first with a showing of $16,387 contributed to various forms of church and benevolent work. This gives the high average for our total membership of $67.40."

"While there will not likely be any such urgent cries for aid in keeping a distressed world from perishing during the year upon which we are entering, will we not solemnly resolve to put more into the regular work for Christ through His church, that such appalling need may not recur through the spread of unchristian standards of morals. The work of the church is vital to the well being of the world and should be supported more liberally than ever in view of its world opportunities."

Following is the report of the pastor made to the Assembly for the year's work: Members, 285; payments on Budget, $2126; special work abroad, $310; special work at home, $935; outside benevolences, $2582; to women's work, $786; salary, $1500; congregational expense, $3298. That the congregation contributed $4877.06 during the year to wipe out the indebtedness against the church was shown in the report of Treasurer W. W. Hoy. For outside charity $2747.70 was received and disbursed. Receipts for missions totaled $2270.02. Recapitulation of the cost of the church and lot shows the property to have cost $41,552.02, including interest on deferred payments. The first cost of the lot and building was $36,631.65.

Annual Reports.
Miss Rosaline Kellogg, for the Light Bearers and Cradle Roll, reported a membership of twenty-four for the former and eighteen for the latter, with eight promotions to the primary.

For the bible school, Mrs. C. T. Eisele reported an average enrollment of 108, with average attendance of 70 for the senior classes; average attendance in the elementary department of 60 and average attendance of the intermediate. Total cash contributions by the children was $610.66.

Mrs. Lea Warren, reporting for the Ladies Aid, stated that the society had received $79.76, or which amount $25 had been invested in War Savings Stamps. Mrs. E. H. Prince, for the Red Cross activities of the aid society, reported that 178 Red Cross garments had been made, 107 garments for relief work, 10 comfort bags and 23 holders for knives, forks and spoons, a total of 315 pieces.

20 YANKS FROM ORANGE COUNTY ARE EXPECTED HOME SOON

Demonstrations in Honor of 160th Regiment Will Be Given Saturday

The 160th Infantry, with no less than twenty Orange County men included, will arrive at San Bernardino tomorrow morning, will go to Riverside Friday afternoon, arrive in Los Angeles for a parade and celebration at 11 o'clock Saturday morning and will pass through Santa Ana on the way to Camp Kearny probably Saturday night. The local office of the Santa Fe has no information as to when the regiment will pass through southward bound. Discharges may be given next week.

Many Orange county people will join in the celebrations at San Bernardino, Riverside and Los Angeles.

Plans for the reception of the regiment in Los Angeles were completed yesterday by the Los Angeles reception committee, following the receipt of a telegram from Col. Charles H. Hutchins, commander, in which he acquiesced heartily in the program.

Everything has been timed for the arrival of the regiment, on Saturday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the Santa Fe station, Los Angeles.

Parade at 11 a. m.
The parade will start at 11 o'clock, from the Santa Fe station, and will follow a line of march through to Broadway, thence down Broadway to First, along First to Spruce and thence south to Ninth, west to Hill, and reach Pershing Square at 11:45. Following the exercises incident to the flag presentation the men will be permitted to leave the park at 1 o'clock for lunch. They will return to the park at 2 o'clock, and the rest of the time until they leave for Camp Kearny they will have with their relatives and friends.

In wiring his acceptance to the local reception committee's invitation to be present, Gov. Stephens said:

"I would prefer to march with the boys instead of riding in an automobile." His request will be granted and he will have a place near the head of the column. Adjt.-Gen. Borree will accompany the governor.

Nearly all of the Orange county men who are in the 160th are men who were with Co. L, Seventh Regt., National Guard, before the war started. Many of them went to the Mexican border with Co. L. After the first contingent of Co. L. went to France, these men were held at Camp Kearny as a nucleus for the new company that was filled in with drafted men.

Arriving in France, Capt. N. M. Holderman and Lieuts. A. K. Ford and C. D. Swanner were transferred to other companies, and Capt. Holderman won the Distinguished Service Cross in the stand of the Lost Battalion. Lieut. Swanner was wounded two days before the armistice was signed. He arrived home this week.

Sergt. Nat Rochester and Ernest Kellogg were transferred and fought with the "Lost" Battalion. Rochester was killed, and Kellogg probably met the same fate.

BIG TRACK MEET BEING HELD IN CHICAGO COLISEUM

Sixty-One Events in Which Stars and Kids Compete Are on Program

CHICAGO, April 10.—One of the largest track meets Chicago and the Midwest ever saw opened here in the Coliseum today under the auspices of the University of Chicago.

The meet, accommodating amateur stars of long experience together with "kids" from public and parochial schools, was under the direct charge of the veteran Tom Eck. Altogether the athletes faced a program of sixty-one events—including six specials in which handsome trophies were to be won.

Long straightaways were made possible in the Coliseum, making certain near-record time in the shorter dashes. Good entries had been made in all the regulation contests, a predominance of college men being noticeable, of course.

Among stars to appear was Jole Ray, famous as a champion miler. He promised a desperate effort to at least equal the record for this event. In the 880, one of Jole's sidelines, he was again to meet the high school boy, Tom Campbell, who twice has defeated him.

Carl Johnson, Michigan's track star, and Earl Gillilan, Notre Dame's all-round track man, were two notables from the college world.

Officials of the Central A. A. U. will run off the meet. A capacity crowd of 6,000 was expected.

INTERMEDIATE BALL TEAM DEFEATS HIGH

ORANGE, April 10.—Staging a big ninth-inning rally, the Intermediate school ball team came from behind and defeated the fast second high school nine by a 9 to 8 score.

The game was close all the way. Few errors were made by either team. Huffman fanned 14 high school men. Charles Johnson led in batting, securing a home run and three singles. Cook made two doubles and a single. Hobbs pitched a good game for the high school. Coach Skiller will take his team to Tustin tomorrow.

The line-up:
Intermediate—Arguello, 1b; Harms, ss; Showalter, cf; Carpenter, 2b; Webster, lf; C. Johnson, 3b; Parker, Jones, rf; C. Davey, C. Huffman, p.
Second High School—Everett, ss; Fields, cf; Oetke, 1b; Cook, c; Hammond, 3b; Hobbs, p; Johnson, 2b; Smith, Granger, lf; Ball, rf.

NINE OF REDLANDS MEN ENTER EVENTS

REDLANDS, April 10.—Nine Redlands men have been entered by Coach Cunningham of the University of Redlands in the A. A. U. meet, which is to be held at Claremont on Saturday. Kilby has been entered in the half and quarter, but will probably run only the half. Yount has been entered in the 100-yard dash, the broad jump and the hurdles. Draper has been entered in the high jump and Cook in the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard dash. Loper will be in the half, and Stewart and Zediker in the distance runs. Powell has been entered in the pole vault and Ford in the hurdles. It is a team that will make a good showing in the meet, it is expected.

ARIZONA SHOOT TO OPEN
PHOENIX, Ariz., April 10.—Shooting experts are already arriving and engaging in final practice for the Arizona Sportsmen's Association annual shooting here Sunday and Monday. The winner of the Arizona amateur trapshoot title will be sent to compete in the American Trapshooting Association meet.

HOME RUN HONOR ROLL

Spider Baum long in experience and stature, held the Seattle Rainiers to four hits, the Seals winning, 4 to 1. Pat Eastley, in his first whole game of the season, permitted twelve hits. After an eight-inning deadlock battle the Oaks came out victorious over Sacramento, 1 to 0. Hits by Miller and Stumpf turned the trick for the commuters.

A ninth-inning rally won "the old ball game" for the Angels, 2 to 1. Oldham pitched for the Beavers, with the bases full, hit Killifer with a pitched ball, forcing over the winning run.

Close games seemed to be the Coast League diet yesterday, so the Bees routed the Vernon bunch in the twelfth inning, 3 to 2. Clio Markle, hurling for Salt Lake, held the Tigers hitless for seven innings.

HARPER-GORMAN BOUT STOPPED IN ROUND 6

VANCOUVER, Wash., April 10.—Bobby Harper of Seattle, and Joe Gorman of Portland, boxed six rounds to a draw here last night. The match was supposed to go twelve rounds, but Colonel Charles Van Way, post commander, refused to let it go the long route.

Freddie Anderson felled Billy Nelson in the first and sixth rounds and won a decision. Sergeant Marsh and Charley Rooney fought a draw, as did Ed Zaharis and Corporal Drew. Freddy Webb lost to Johnny Fugate.

WILL MAINTAIN HOPELESS CASE COUNTY HONOR IN VICTORY LOAN DRIVE

Chairman R. L. Bisby Has Confidence in the Loyal Support of People

"The honor of Orange county, the honor of Santa Ana, the honor of the individuals of the city and county are at stake in the county Victory Loan and I do not believe for one moment that the generous and loyal residents of this county are going to sacrifice that honor by refusing to support the loan to the limit."

This is the statement of R. L. Bisby, county chairman for the Victory Loan, who has every confidence that the city and county will go over the top, as they have done in all previous campaigns.

Bisby has started organization work throughout the county and already has plans well in hand for launching the drive. City chairmen have been appointed and they in turn have called live, active men to their assistance. Districts have been formed, workers secured, and when the word comes to move, hundreds of active men and women in the county will spring into action.

For Santa Ana, John C. Mitchell has assumed the responsibility of sending the city over the top of her quota, which will probably be the same as on the last drive, $1,301,350. The city chairman has been through all the details in the city and is conversant with the situation and the details of organization. The city has been divided into five districts, four residential and one business. A chairman for each district has been named and Mitchell will hold each responsible for full results from his district.

No Sacrifice Too Great

"No sacrifice was thought to be too great within the home that would tend to lessen the possibility of the loss of life upon the other side, and I believe our people will demonstrate their appreciation of the early victory by quickly subscribing the quota," declared Bisby today. "Enormous quantities of supplies were contracted and the largest order ever placed by an association of people was placed by the civilian population of America with the government—the purchasing of a victory at the earliest possible moment, no matter what the expense."

"On November 11, 1918, the world was released from the strain of fear and sorrow by the information that the armies of the Allies had been victorious, and that the opposing armies were willing to concede to any terms. Never can we forget the surge of joy, of peace and happiness that went through the world at that time, yet had we thought, we must have realized that it was impossible that so great a piece of machinery as that of the war could be thrown into the reverse gear without an enormous cost to us, so we find ourselves at this time faced with the necessity of supplying our Government with a Fifth or Victory Loan. It seems to me that we should be exceedingly well pleased that this cost in dollars does not carry with it the cost of several hundred thousand lives of our American boys."

Saved 500,000 Lives

"It has been said that Marshal Foch was in tears when he signed the armistice, for the reason that the strategic manipulations of the Allied armies had at that time placed him in the position where we could have captured over 550,000 of the German soldiers in a single battle, yet it would have cost us the lives of several hundred thousand American soldiers. To my way of thinking, the whole German Empire is not worth the life of one American soldier."

"The standard for the Fifth or Victory Loan should carry the word 'Honor' upon it. The honor of America and the honor of each and every community in America, together with the honor of each and every individual of that community, is at stake, not alone to ourselves, but to the entire world, because no peace is to be bound by the provincialism of nationalism. We are an international power. We are a dominant factor in the policies of the world government, consequently the eyes of the world are upon us. The results of the Fifth or Victory Loan will be watched as carefully upon the other side in the most remote countries, as it will be here in America, so I say it is well that we should begin now to realize the responsibility that is upon us and prepare to go forward and make this loan a success. Let there be no 'ifs' and 'ands' or 'buts' in this campaign."

Mr. Joseph Rosenbaum, 5017 Drexel Road, Chicago, Ill., writes as follows: "For many years I was a sufferer from Rheumatism, Neuritis and Constipation, and after trying many remedies I purchased your 'J. B. L. Cascade.' Have been using it for twelve years and find it most beneficial. All the above ailments have disappeared and I now enjoy excellent health. You can help Nature in Nature's most effective way, by internal bathing with the 'J. B. L. Cascade,' and in an easy, non-habit forming manner keep the intestine as sweet and clean as Nature demands it to be for perfect health. Over half a million keen, bright, healthy Americans testify to its results. It is the invention of Chas. A. Tyrrell, M. D. of New York, a specialist on Internal Bathing for 25 years, and is now being shown and explained by Rowley Drug Co., Santa Ana, Calif. They will be glad to give you free on request a booklet by Dr. Tyrrell, 'Why Man of 70-80 is Only 50 per cent Efficient,' which is most interesting, and will tell you facts about yourself that you have never before realized."

Red Cross Will Continue Hunt For Missing Santa Ana Officer

To the Red Cross in France, the chances of finding Lieut. Charles L. Deaver of Santa Ana appear hopeless. Friends of Lieut. Deaver in Santa Ana, where he was an instructor in the Santa Ana High School, and in Riverside, where his parents live, have kept up a constant stream of inquiries going to France in the hope of somewhere finding some trace of the lieutenant.

Recently word came from a brother officer to the effect that Lieut. Deaver had not been seen since October 6, when shooting and shooting were heard at a point outside the lines and at a point where Deaver was known to have gone. Graves were checked up, and there was none marked with his number.

Among inquiries sent to France was one by Attorney S. M. Davis to Rev. J. A. Stevenson of Santa Ana, now in Y. M. C. A. service in France. As a result of that inquiry, Davis today received the following statement, written March 24 by Maude Cleveland, Home Communication Service, Brest Division, Western Zone, American Red Cross, at Brest, France:

"Rev. J. A. Stevenson has turned over to our Service your inquiry of January 9 concerning Lieut. Charles Deaver, Co. B, 145th Machine Gun Battalion."

"We have the following report on him: 'He has been missing since October 6, 1918, and is still carried as missing. There is no file report, no notification of death or prisoner of war; therefore this looks like a hopeless case.'

"We will continue, of course, to carry him on our lists and will do everything in our power to get further information from him. You will be notified directly from our Paris headquarters of any further information."

Circular Prepared
There is now being printed in Santa Ana a circular showing a picture and giving a complete description of Lieut. Deaver. This will be sent by A. J. Perkins of Santa Ana, with whom Lieut. Deaver made his home, to the Red Cross for distribution in France and Germany.

Concerning the work that the Red Cross is doing in seeking to locate missing men, the Red Cross division headquarters in San Francisco has issued the following to chapters:

"SUBJECT: Tracing men listed as missing."

"The Bureau of Communication is advised by Washington that there are approximately 5,500 missing men to be accounted for, all of whom have been reported to Washington. No accurate estimate of unreported deaths can be given. Chapters who have anxious parents and other relatives unsatisfied will please co-operate, patiently advising families that everything possible is being done. Consideration should be given by relatives that methods of warfare and wide scope of activities lent exceptional difficulties to discovery and internment of dead. Burial parties frequently completed their mission under heavy fire and often it could be done only under cover of darkness, thus making identification difficult and often impossible."

Investigate Reports

"Graves Registration Service reports and Chaplain reports are being investigated, a small percentage proving cases of our dead previously not reported. Access to German prison camps and territory formerly held by the enemy is leading to discovery of many American graves and identification of casualties previously reported as missing. Re-interments of bodies from isolated graves, in centralized cemeteries, is furnishing additional identification, also investigation of deaths in French hospitals from which only meager and often incorrect records were originally obtained; also reburial of bodies from these hospitals likewise disclose identity of missing men."

"British official war records show 161,800 missing."

"French official war records show 290,000 missing."

"Our list of 5,500 is small, indeed, and the percentage that belongs to Pacific Division is not great; this number will be eventually much reduced."

"Please enjoin the public to exercise even a little more patience. While service seems very slow, everything possible is being done. The Bureau of Communication will not relax its efforts until every case has been traced to a finality and reported to the families."

Mr. Ralph Graham Tells How Cuticura Healed Pimples

"My trouble began with pimples on my face. They would start with a red spot and come to a head, and they were soft. They were scattered all over my face and itched so that I irritated them by scratching. My face was disfigured while the pimples lasted."

"I tried many remedies but had no success, and I was troubled with the pimples for about four years. Then I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment for every-day toilet purposes and Cuticura Talcum to powder and perfume."

Plan Purchase of Truck For Street Department

NEWPORT BEACH, April 9.—The statement of Frank J. Knight, street superintendent of Newport Beach, at the meeting of the Board of Trustees Monday evening, that he was three months behind in street work, brought up the discussion of the advisability of purchasing a light truck for the department. The city has two teams at the present time and it was pointed out that much of the work could be done in less than half the time with a truck. The discussion ended by the street committee being appointed to investigate the different makes of trucks and report at the next meeting.

Mrs. J. A. Woods, proprietor of the Corner store at 30th street and Coast boulevard, entered a vigorous protest because the work of improving the Coast boulevard had been stopped at 27th street instead of continuing to 30th. This street has been made passable as far as 27th street, but Street Superintendent Knight stated that it would be impossible for him to complete it at the present time, as the necessary work on the streets had been delayed. He explained that the work could be completed a little later on.

Newport Heights Matters
L. S. Wilkinson, chairman of the committee appointed to investigate the problem of electric lights for domestic use for Newport Heights, reported that a communication has been received from the Southern California Edison Company, asking if the city would be willing to advance the money for the extension of the system and accept the earnings to reimburse them for the expense, or whether the Heights residents would advance the money and accept in payment for same, "juice" furnished by the company until payment was completed. The first proposition was out of the question as the city has no funds at this time to spend for electrical extension. Whether the Heights people would undertake the second proposal is problematical.

The question of water for the Heights was again made a topic of discussion by the communication of Cora Bassett Wilkinson, asking for a refund of $5 which she had paid for water in excess of the regular city rate. Attorney Bishop informed the board that it could not legally refund any money in this manner. Trustee Wilkinson reported that the matter was being considered by the Newport Heights Irrigation District to furnish the city with water for its Heights residents, which as soon as settled, would give the mesa folks water at regular city rates.

The application of F. C. Bozovich to construct and operate a fish market at Balboa was discussed, but action delayed on granting the request until a subsequent meeting. The application of Frank Terry to construct a pier in front of his lot on the Bay front east of Main street, Balboa, was also laid over. The specifications for the pier stated that it would be 125 feet long and constructed of wood supported by reinforced concrete piling.

Miss T. Byrnes was granted a license to conduct a restaurant in the John Struckenbruck building near Bay avenue, Newport.

Flag Raising Program
The request of J. A. Lightship to put up a flag pole on Balboa Island at the foot of Agate street, for a flag-raising program to be held in the near future, was granted by the board of trustees.

Benefit, Not a Detriment
A communication was received from C. H. Elmendorf, protesting on dumping the dredger material from the bay on to the Ocean front at East Newport, claiming that it would ruin the beach. He threatened to serve an injunction on the city, but explained that he was not sure that damage would result. The city clerk was instructed to write him that the sand would be a benefit instead of a damage to the Ocean front.

A communication was received from C. H. Burnett, land agent of the Pacific Electric, in regard to the sewer right of way from Alvarado to Main street, Balboa. He said that the company was willing to grant the city an easement of ten feet on the northerly side of the right of way, provided they were willing to vacate ten feet on the southerly side and agree that the railway company would not be assessed for any street improvement which might be undertaken later. This proposition did not look good to the board and it was decided that, if necessary, the sewer pipes could be laid under the sidewalk, as it is in bad shape and would have to be rebuilt sooner or later.

City Attorney Bishop reported that the matter of increasing the size of the gas mains between Newport Beach and Huntington Beach, had been taken up with the Southern California Gas Company, but he had not yet received any reply from them. He asked for the contract between them and the city and stated that he would "talk turkey" if it became necessary.

New House Numbers
Ordinance No. 148, providing for the numbering of the houses in Newport Beach, after being revised by City Attorney Bishop, was given final reading and is now a city law. The plan of numbering as outlined in the new ordinance, provides that all streets west of First street, East Newport, will be preceded by the word "West," and all streets east, preceded by the word "East." Numbering will begin with 100, at First street or its extension, Island avenue. Streets running at right angles to the Pacific Ocean will be numbered beginning at the first lot on the shore and extending northerly, one number being assigned to each lot of 25 feet frontage.

The contract with the South Coast Improvement Association, which terminated on April 1, was renewed by the city for three months, and the contribution for publicity work raised from $62.50 to $75 per month.

The contract with the Westinghouse Electrical Company for light bulbs, globes, etc., for the city's lighting system, was renewed and the president and clerk instructed to sign the same for the ensuing year.

A proposition was made to the Board of Trustees by Joseph Ferguson asking if it would accept a lot at its assessed valuation for the filling of other property belonging to Ferguson. The price of the lot was $400 and the city's bill for filling was $305, leaving a balance of $85 which Ferguson said he would be willing to take in filling on property owned by him at Balboa. The matter was talked over to considerable length, but no action taken.

Beach Notes and Personals
Miss Mildred McNeal, who has been spending several days in Newport Beach visiting with friends, returned to her home in Santa Ana Tuesday.

Brayton S. Northcross, recently home from army service, was a business visitor in Los Angeles Tuesday.

Miss Frances McVaine, manager of the Barker apartments, is reported quite ill.

Frank Terry is building a private wharf or pier in front of his property near the Bay Villa apartments on the Bay front.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holder and son, William, of Huntington Park, spent Sunday in Newport Beach visiting her father, David C. Winans and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Art L. Heard and son, Clifton, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCain and son Teddy and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Durkee and family, motored to Orange County Park Sunday for a day's outing. They were joined in Santa Ana by Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Woods and Mrs. H. H. Smith. The juniors had a glorious time riding the burros, shooting the chutes, boating, swinging and enjoying the many other diversions offered at the park.

F. F. Thorp, of Santa Ana, has the job of moving the large Woodhill home at East Newport.

Mrs. Pearl Cooney, of Oskaloosa, Ia., and Mrs. Gertrude Minor, of Los Angeles, were recent guests of Mrs. S. S. Fenton and Mrs. Helen Smith at their home on 22nd street and Ocean front.

Mrs. Gus Wurdinger, of Newport Heights, who was injured while cranking the family Lizzie, is now much improved.

Hugh McMillan has been at Laguna Beach for several days the past week with his launch "Cecyl," working for the movies in a smuggling film.

Fred Selkren, one of the dredger employees, spent Sunday in Los Angeles with friends.

B. K. Stone, owner of the Parker block in Newport Beach, was down from San Gabriel Tuesday looking after his interests here.

Everett A. White, one of the cashiers of the California National Bank of Santa Ana, was a business visitor in Newport Beach Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Baker spent several days in Santa Ana last week visiting with friends. Sunday they enjoyed a trip to Orange County Park. They expect to leave Monday for their eastern home in Paw-Paw, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lindsay, of Santa Ana, spent Sunday in Newport Beach with relatives and friends.

The pupils of the Newport Beach grammar school have been enjoying a vacation this week. After the week's rest from school work, they will again take up their tasks next Monday morning, April 14.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hemstreet and two sons, Elwin and Orval, of Gardena, spent the week-end in Newport Beach visiting with his brother, C. S. Hemstreet and other relatives and friends. They left on Tuesday morning for Wilcox, Ariz., where Mr. Hemstreet has a large stock ranch, and where they will reside. Mr. Hemstreet is a former Newporter, having been the proprietor of the dairy and transfer line now owned by Glenn Helms.

Byron Hall, who has been spending several months near San Diego in the mining game, returned home last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Conklin, of Perris, are occupying their summer home on the Ocean front at East Newport.

H. A. Barton was down from Los Angeles Sunday for a few hours' visit with his many friends here.

EASTER SERVICE AT SUNRISE IN LINDA VISTA PARK

YORBA LINDA, April 8.—Yorba Linda is again to celebrate the Resurrection Morn with an Easter sunrise ceremony on the mountain top in Linda Vista Park. The first great meeting was held one year ago and enjoyed by more than a thousand people from all parts of the county and Southern California.

It was a perfect day and the musical and sacred program was a splendid success under the direction of Mrs. Carl Seamans, who again this year will have full charge.

The program now completed will open just before sunrise with Scripture reading—Matthew 16, by Thomas B. Welch, and as the rays of sunshine point from the eastern hills the congregation will join in the old familiar hymn, "Joy to the World the Lord Has Come."

The opening prayer will be made by Rev. John A. Shaw, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Yorba Linda, followed by congregational singing, "In the Cross of Christ I Glory."

The cornet solo, "The Holy City," will be rendered by Roy Knight of Yorba Linda.

Miss Dorothy Dukes, of Los Angeles, will sing, "Hail Joyous Morn" by Cadman.

Rev. Dr. Marsh, who is well known throughout Southern California, and for several years pastor of the Congregational church of Whittier, will deliver the address of the occasion.

The audience will then be favored by another solo by Miss Dukes, "Arioso Greet the Dawn," by Gertrude Ross. Congregational singing, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," followed by the benediction by Rev. Ray Carter, pastor of the Friends church of Yorba Linda.

A most cordial welcome is extended to all of California. The site is easily reached by machines and Yorba Linda is a generous host.

It Costs $1.50 To Get His Telephone Bill Sent To Him

Did you ever pay $1.50 or any other sum added to your bill just because the firm to whom you owed the money changed your name around on the books?

A. G. Flagg, proprietor of the printing shop, has got something like that to do. When he got his bill this month from the Pacific Telephone Co. he found a number of extras.

"I understand the raise on my local phone, the raise on long distance, the war tax and all that, and I understand the bill for having my name printed in black type in the telephone directory," said Flagg, "but this $1.50! That's a new one."

But there is law for it, says the telephone manager. Postmaster Burleson, who is cited as the man responsible for most of the bills that telephone users have fallen heir to, made an order some time ago that whenever a telephone company has to change a name on its account book it can make a charge for that.

About fifteen months ago the present Flagg shop was conducted by the firm of Flagg & Campbell. Flagg bought out his partner. Ever since then the telephone bills have been coming directed to Flagg & Campbell, and Flagg has been paying them. A few days ago the telephone company changed its records over from Flagg & Campbell to A. G. Flagg. For that Flagg pays $1.50. There are others, too.

YANKS FAVOR THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

American soldiers in France favor the League of Nations plan, feeling that America has already been pretty well mixed up in European affairs and a little more won't hurt, according to Sergt. R. B. (Bob) Perry, in a letter to his father, C. S. Perry of 1331 West Fifth street. Sergt. Perry is now attending the University of Paris and is seeing many wonderful sights. His interesting letter, written March 7th, follows:

Paris, March 7, 1919.

"It will take quite a letter to tell just the news of my experience since I last wrote you. I had told you of applying for the privilege of taking work in a French or British university. Well, I am here taking French at the University of Paris. It is an experience second only to my experience at the front.

"I spent my first three days here sightseeing. I spent one-half day viewing the great panoramic paintings of scenes and personages of the war at the Pantheon de la Guerre. Another half day was consumed in visiting Napoleon's tomb and the museum at the Invalides. Taking a view upward from base of the Eiffel Tower, and a view outward over the city from the Church of the Sacred Heart, took another day; and the last of the three days took me to the Arch of Triumph and the Notre Dame Cathedral. It would take too long to try to describe all these places, but I will try to tell something of how they impress me from time to time as I write, for I intend to see them all many times, and there are many more beautiful and wonderful things to see."

Attends Paris Theater

"I attended the opera one night. They sang Henry VIII. It was a beautiful play and a wonderful playhouse. I adopted the French practice of promenading through the stately halls between acts and looking over the people in the audience through opera glasses. It is sort of like looking down the muzzle of a machine gun to have those glasses leveled on you; but I returned stare for stare.

"After seeing the sights, I set out to find a place of permanent lodging. It was a tremendous job, but after three more days of search I secured board and room with one of the finest families I have ever met. It is a French family, but father, mother and son speak excellent English. M. Foulet, the father, was formerly professor of French at Bryn Mawr, and also later a professor in the University of Paris. There is a lady of the Y. M. C. A. staying here also. She was a former pupil of Mr. Foulet's at Bryn Mawr and later taught French at Smith University. So you see I am in good company, and the house is very pleasant and near enough for me to walk to the university in ten minutes. I shall try to make the most of opportunity and not be a parasite just because I live in Paris.

"Today I saw the Queen of Roumania enter the Institute de France. I shall expect to see President Wilson sometime while he is here. I have often gone past the building where the Peace Conference is being held.

Approve League Plan

"I have been reading the League of Nations controversy and have heard it discussed by many of the boys in the A. E. F., and from what I have heard, is safe to say to the senators from California that we of the A. E. F. are in favor of the proposition, and if they do not work for it they had better have more adequate and sensible reasons than have you given for not supporting it. We feel that we have been pretty thoroughly mixed up in European affairs already, and that such a league as has been proposed can surely do no worse than has come to us without it. But more than that, we believe in it positively, and we ask that you folks at home see to it that it does not come to work hard, to fight hard, to live hard, to die hard, and then go to hell after all, would be too damned hard. That's how we feel about the League of Nations.

"I will be here till July. I'm sorry not to go home with my outfit, but I felt I could not let this opportunity go by. I expect to visit London and some other places before I cross the water to the good, old U. S. A."

Artichoke shipments from Imperial Valley expected to wind up this week.
Weather favorable in Los Angeles district and supplies are increasing with quality gradually improving.

Artichoke shipments from central district now at height and quality is excellent. No. 1 packed in apple boxes are moving at 3.50-3.75 f. o. b. usual terms.

The asparagus crop in the central district is maturing slowly on account of continued cool weather. There is a good demand for green stock at fancy 2.50.
Rhubarb deal in central district is generally disappointing account stock small and prices unsatisfactory. Some growers are refusing to cut at prevailing figures. The end of next week will probably see the winding of the shipping season on account of eastern rhubarb beginning to appear. Closing prices last week for strawberry rhubarb packed in California apple boxes f. o. b. usual terms were, extra fancy, 1.75@1.85; extra choice, 1.50@1.60; choice, 1.25@1.40.
Cantaloupes from Imperial Valley reported to be two weeks late, but making good growth.

The general belief is that Bermuda onions from Coachella Valley will start to move about May 1.

WINTERSBURG HAS SURPRISE WEDDING

Miss Fern Bradbury Becomes Bride of Homer Hall, a Submarine Engineer

WINTERSBURG AND SMELTZER, April 10.—On last Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock a simple home wedding was solemnized at the E. R. Bradbury home at Wintersburg uniting in marriage Miss Fern Bradbury, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bradbury and Mr. Homer Hall, an engineer of the submarine L-6, now at the port at San Pedro.

Rev. C. M. Ross, pastor of the Wintersburg church, performed the simple ceremony which was witnessed only by the parents of the bride, sister, Miss Allie Bradbury, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Beam, the latter a chum of the bride.

The lovely bride, who was a member of the graduating class of 1918 of the Huntington Beach high school, wore her graduating dress of sheer white marquisette and wore a beautiful bunch of purple violets.

Following the congratulations of the wedding party, the young couple left immediately for Long Beach, the groom having to report for duty early Saturday morning. The L-6 is due to leave San Pedro within a few days for the Mare Island Navy Yard where it will undergo repairs and until that time, when Mr. Hall will be called to rejoin his boat, the young people will remain at Huntington Beach. Two years of Mr. Hall's time of enlistment in the navy is yet unexpired but an application for his release from service is now in and if granted he will return to his former position in Los Angeles where he was engineer for the Alexandria hotel previous to entering the navy.

Mrs. Hall will return to her position in the Huntington Beach First National Bank, which she has held for some time, until her husband is discharged from the service.

Men's Class Meets

On last Friday evening a delightful function was enjoyed in the Sunday school class rooms of the local Methodist church by the men's Bible class of which E. Ray Moore is teacher. A most substantial supper composed of meat stew, baked beans, potato salad and cake was served by the committee of men in charge. Eighteen men sat down to the tempting repast and later were privileged to listen to a strong address on the subject of "Christianity and the World Outlook" by Rev. John Oliver, pastor of the First Methodist church of Santa Ana, who was a guest of the occasion. A discussion of the Community Welfare Association was held by the members of the dinner party and with social conversation the evening was voted a most successful affair by the men present.

Picnic at Park

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Crane, daughters, Misses Mary and Florene, son, S. J. Crane and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham drove to Orange County Park Sunday where they were met by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham and family of North Whittier Heights. A lovely picnic lunch was enjoyed at noon and the day passed most pleasantly, the only thing marring the pleasure being the non-appearance of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hamilton and children of Pomona, who were to have joined the picnic crowd and accompany the Cranes home for a few days' visit. Mr. Hamilton being off on his vacation.

Upon returning home Mr. and Mrs. Crane and family found the Hamiltons making themselves at home and supper all in readiness for the returned picnicers.
The plans had first been made for the day to be spent in the Santa Ana canyon and when it was later decided to go to Orange County Park instead, Mr. Hamilton, who was not acquainted with that section of the country, did not understand the direction and drove up the Santa Ana canyon road almost to Corona hunting the park. Upon their failure to find it they came on here.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Crane and family and their guests visited in Long Beach.

Visit Blythe Ranch

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Graham made a trip to their ranch at Blythe the latter part of the week, leaving Thursday and returning Sunday. They found their 80-acre ranch prospering under the management of E. E. Haun, who went from Graham's home ranch to take charge when Riley Graham moved up the valley.

He has the entire eighty acres leveled and is at present planting eight acres to alfalfa and the remainder is all ready for planting of cotton. Miss Ethel Graham was the guest of Miss Jennie Ufford at Huntington Beach during the absence of her parents.

Attend Mothers' Reception

Several of the mothers of the local community, members whose families are pupils of the Huntington Beach high school, attended the Mothers' day reception held Friday afternoon at the school and thoroughly enjoyed the delightful time. A most interesting program of music, illustrated songs, living pictures, etc., was given by the girls following two charming talks by Miss Allen, president of the girls' league of the Manual Arts high school of Los Angeles and by Mrs. Wintersburg of the Manual Arts faculty. Delicious refreshments prepared by the cooking class of the school, were served. Among the ladies present at the reception from here were Mrs. W. G. Alford, Mrs. J. R. Morgan, Mrs. George B. Crane, Mrs. A. Ruoff, Mrs. R. J. Morgan.

400 Little French War Orphans See Y. M. C. A.'s Paris Wonderland

The famous Ice Palace, in Paris, the most elaborate recreation building, probably, in all Europe, is one of the chief delights of the doughboys in the French capital. Every form of amusement—movies, musical concerts, vaudeville and games of all sorts and descriptions—is to be found there since the Y.M.C.A. took over the building and turned it into a great recreation center for American boys overseas.

Into this wonderland, four hundred little French war orphans were led recently and made the guests of honor of the doughboys and the "Y" during one whole day. They were entertained with a special musical concert, and had front seats at a vaudeville show. They saw reels and reels of movies, shouting over the antics of "the man with the feet"—a famous American comedian. They were shown how to play some of the strange American games, though many of these games were familiar under their French names.

From forenoon until evening they romped and ate and laughed. Then, after more candy and ice cream and lemonade, came the final surprise.

Every one of the youngsters got a present of some sort. Dolls, picture books, skipping ropes, pop guns, trains and jumping jacks appeared as if by magic and the children were loaded up with them before they started for home. By common impulse the doughboys had elected themselves a committee to help the "Y" see to it that everybody had a good time, and the only complaints heard were from the young guests who protested at having to go home at all. It was the greatest day in all the short lives of these four hundred whom the war has left fatherless.

RICHELIEU MARKET UNDER NEW CONTROL

The Richelieu Market, 431 West Fourth street, is now under the ownership of J. Gelsinger, who also has a market in Anaheim, and people in the west end of town will have the benefit of a good market close at hand. The policy of this concern is to give the best the market affords at the lowest prices, and it does most of its own killing.

The new resident manager of the market, J. B. French, has recently returned from France, where he was with the Fifth Division Supply Company. The thousands of pounds of meat handled daily in this work, and the wide experience necessary in army meat inspection, should be of great value to Richelieu patrons, as it will assure them of the very best.

SWING TO HEAD NEXT NATIONAL ORANGE SHOW

SAN BERNARDINO, April 10.—Ralph E. Swing was elected president of the National Orange Show by the executive committee at San Bernardino. Friday, February 13, 1919, was selected as the opening day, and the show will continue to Monday, February 23. Financial statement filed shows the year's business resulted in a net income of $4026.56.

FARM CENTER, P.-T.A. TO MEET AT EL MODENA

Campaign for New Members of Each Will Soon be Inaugurated

ORANGE, April 10.—A joint meeting of the El Modena Farm Center and P.-T.A. is to be held tomorrow evening for the purpose of enrolling members in both organizations. Following supper at 6:30 p. m. there will be a program with talks by H. E. Wahlberg, county farm advisor, and H. E. Woodrough, president of the county farm bureau. The El Modena grammar school orchestra will provide music.

A special invitation is extended to Villa Park people to be present as well as to all El Modena people. All are welcome, whether members of the organizations or not. Supper is free.

Died at Age of 80

George W. Fate, who has resided in Orange for the past twelve years, died Tuesday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. L. Whiteman of West Chapman avenue. He was 80 years old.

Mr. Fate came to Orange from Nebraska and his remains will be shipped to his former home in that state for burial. Funeral services will be held in Orange.

Besides his daughter, Mrs. Whiteman, the deceased leaves five sons, who are in the east, and another daughter, who lives in this state.

Start Masonic Campaign

Before a big gathering of representative Masons from all of Orange county, Motley H. Flint of Los Angeles began the local campaign in behalf of the Masonic homes endowment fund.

Flint explained the plan of the order and announced the intention of raising $1,000,000 in California within the next few years for endowing Masonic homes.

Other speakers were E. B. Trago of Santa Ana, Marshall Keeler of Santa Ana, Joseph Vavra of Huntington Beach and George McNeal of Buena Park.

Brunton Addresses Assembly

Captain Delbert Brunton, addressing an assembly at the high school yesterday morning, gave an interesting recital of his experiences in training camps in this country and France and an account of the Argonne battle in which his division was engaged.

His description of the trip overseas, the quartering of troops, the convoys, the landing in England and France, the work of his ammunition train, and the actual participation in the fighting in the Argonne were followed with closest attention by the students and a number of other people who attended the assembly.

Surprise for Mrs. Stinson

A pleasant event of Monday evening was surprise given for Mrs. D. Stinson, in honor of her seventy-fifth birthday anniversary. All of her children and grandchildren gathered at her home at 171 South Grand street. Everyone from the oldest child to the youngest grandchildren brought a gift for their hostess.

During the course of a delightful evening a dainty repast which was brought by the guests, was served.

MY STAR
I have a gold star on my breast.
A star of strife, a star of rest;
It marks a sword thrust through my heart.
It tells of glory and of pain,
Of bitter loss and wondrous gain,
Of youth that played the hero's part.
O star of gold upon my breast,
Tell of those stars that he loved best;
He bore the stripes, he suffered all
To keep our banner free from stain;
He hath not given all in vain
In answering his nation's call.
O star of hope upon my breast,
Strengthen the faith I have professed!
He died that nations might be free;
Help me to live for truth and right,
And with my woman's soul to fight
Nerved by his immortality.
